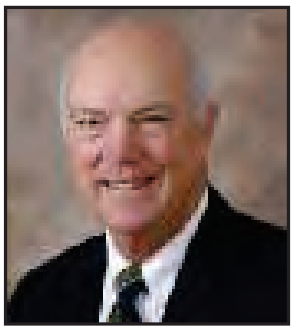
WILLIAM O. DeWITT JR.
CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

As the principal owner of the Cardinals, Bill DeWitt Jr. has served as its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer since 1996. DeWitt oversees all operational, baseball, financial and league matters for the team and is a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, the Board of Major League Baseball Advanced Media, the Ownership Committee, the Diversity Committee, and the Commissioner's Special Committee for On-Field Matters. He also serves on the board of the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

DeWitt, a native St. Louisan, is a graduate of St. Louis Country Day School, received his B.A. Degree in economics from Yale University in 1963, and M.B.A. Degree from Harvard Business School in 1965. As the son of former baseball executive and team owner, William O. DeWitt and Margaret H. DeWitt, he has deep roots in Baseball dating back to his childhood. Mr. DeWitt, Sr. began his career with the Cardinals in 1916 and worked in a variety of executive positions under Branch Rickey until the early 1940s when he joined the St. Louis Browns as General Manager. He was twice named Executive of the Year, was sole owner of the Cincinnati Reds from 1961-67 and majority owner of the Browns from 1949-51 when Bill, Jr. served as the team's bat boy, and his uniform, number 1/8, was worn by Eddie Gaedel during his famous pinch hitting appearance on August 19, 1951.

DeWitt, Jr. has been a prior owner of the Baltimore Orioles, Cincinnati Reds and Texas Rangers. He was also a shareholder of the Cincinnati Bengals Football Team and the Cincinnati Stingers Hockey Team, and has had a long career in private equity with Reynolds DeWitt & Co. He is married to the former Katharine Cramer of St. Louis. They have four grown children: Katie, Bill, Andrew, and Margot, and 12 grandchildren.



FREDERICK O. HANSER
DIRECTOR

Fred Hanser has been a Director of the Cardinals since 1996, as well as the team's Secretary. He served as Vice Chairman until his retirement in 2009. A life-long St. Louis resident and Cardinals fan, Hanser was born April 13, 1942. He is the son of Olive Diez Hanser Mullen and S. Albert Hanser, M.D. and is the great-grandson of Adolph M. Diez, who was an owner of the Cardinals for 30 years, from 1917-1947.

Hanser received a B.A. degree in economics from Yale University in 1963 and earned a J.D. degree from the Washington University School of Law in 1966. He practiced law with the St. Louis law firm of Armstrong, Teasdale, L.L.P. beginning in 1978, and previously with Fordyce and Mayne from 1966-1978. Hanser and his wife, Kathy, have two grown children, Tim and Kara Mikulec, M.D., and four grandchildren.

In Memory of

ANDREW N. BAUR
1944-2011

The Cardinals family lost a dear friend in February of 2011. Drew Baur was a key organizer of the current ownership group that bought the Cardinals in the spring of 1996. Drew was a civic leader known for his generous philanthropic work, his engaging personality and his lifelong love of the Cardinals.

Drew had been a Director of the Cardinals since 1996 and also served as the team's Treasurer. He had a distinguished career in banking, serving as Chairman of Southwest Bank of St. Louis, Chairman & CEO of County Bank of St. Louis and President and Chairman of Commerce Bank of St. Louis. The son of the late Andrew H. Baur and the former Florence Noland, Baur attended Country Day School in St. Louis, received an AB degree in 1966 from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Va., and an M.B.A. from Georgia State University in 1970. Baur is survived by his mother Florence, his three children Andrew, Todd and McKay, and his seven grandchildren.

WILLIAM DEWITT, III
PRESIDENT

Bill DeWitt III was named President of the St. Louis Cardinals in March 2008. In his role as team President, DeWitt oversees all aspects of the business of the team and its affiliated entities.

Prior to his appointment as team President, he was Sr. Vice President of Business Development with the Cardinals and oversaw the design and construction of the new Busch Stadium, which opened in April, 2006. Prior to that he was involved in several merchandising, marketing, and operational projects for the team. DeWitt was also involved in the planning for Roger Dean Stadium in Jupiter, Florida, where the Cardinals conduct Spring Training and host a Florida State League team, the Palm Beach Cardinals. He continues to be involved in plans for a mixed-use real estate development - Ballpark Village - which will be built adjacent to the new Busch Stadium on the sight of the old ballpark.

DeWitt, 43, graduated cum laude from the Taft School in 1986 and went on to graduate cum laude from Yale University in 1990. He then served as an assistant to William Reilly, head of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in Washington D.C. for four years. While there he researched and prepared briefing materials and speeches. He then attended Harvard Business School, earning his MBA in 1995.

DeWitt currently sits on the boards of the following institutions: The Taft School in Watertown, CT; Cardinals Care; Big Brothers Big Sisters of Eastern Missouri; the Muny; the Partnership for Downtown St. Louis; the St. Louis Sports Commission; and the RCGA. He was formerly president of the board of Emergency Children's Home (ECHO) in St. Louis.

DeWitt and his wife, Ira, live in St. Louis with their two children - daughter Natalie (12) and son, Will (9). Bill is an avid golfer and ice hockey player.

JOHN MOZELIAK

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT / GENERAL MANAGER

John "Mo" Mozeliak was named the Cardinals Vice President/General Manager on October 31, 2007. Mozeliak was promoted from his previous position as Assistant General Manager with the club, a position he had held for six seasons. He is the 12th general manager in more than 100 years of Cardinals baseball history.

Mozeliak made several moves prior to the 2011 season to try positioning the club for another postseason appearance. He signed free agent outfielder Lance Berkman and infielder Nick Punto, as well as trading for shortstop Ryan Theriot.

In January of 2010, Mo orchestrated the largest player contract in team franchise history with the signing of Matt Holliday to a seven-year deal with an option for 2017. He re-signed pitcher Kyle Lohse, who he picked up as a free-agent in March 2008, to a four-year deal the day following the conclusion of the 2008 season. Upon being named GM in 2007, he completed a deal with catcher Yadier Molina on a four-year contract with a club option for a fifth year that ensures one of the best young catchers in the game remains in a Cardinals uniform through at least 2011.

His in-season moves in 2009 helped the Cardinals to their first N.L. Central Division title under his watch. Mo traded for infielders Mark DeRosa and Julio Lugo and made his biggest splash with a trade on July 24 that brought outfielder Matt Holliday to St. Louis. He also added veteran right handed pitcher John Smoltz in August to bolster the pitching staff. In addition, he signed relievers Ryan Franklin and Trever Miller to new contracts during the 2009 season to keep them with the Cardinals for at least another two years.

Mozeliak, 42, is a 16-year veteran of the Cardinals front office. He joined the organization following the 1995 season and served as an assistant in scouting operations during the 1996 and '97 seasons. He was named the assistant scouting director in 1998 and promoted to scouting director during 1999 and 2000. Several notable players came out of the draft classes of '99 and 2000 under Mo's direction, most notably first baseman and perennial All-Star Albert Pujols who was drafted in the 13th round of the 1999 draft and catcher Yadier Molina.

In 2001, Mozeliak was named the Director of Baseball Operations and he was promoted to Assistant General Manager in 2003. During his time as Asst. GM his duties increased as he focused more on the Major League club and professional scouting, while still having direct involvement in both the scouting and player development departments.

Mozeliak began his career in baseball in 1993 with the Colorado Rockies where he worked in a variety of positions in baseball operations. He attended the University of Arizona and is a graduate of the University of Colorado. He lives in St. Louis with his wife, Julie, and daughter, Allyson More (7/22/99) and son, William John (1/7/05).

JEFF LUHNOW
VICE PRESIDENT OF SCOUTING & PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Jeff Luhnow joined the Cardinals in 2003 as Vice President of Baseball Development. Since September 2006 Luhnow has served multiple roles as the club's farm director, amateur scouting director and international director. His current position came after serving as scouting director since 2005 and international director since 2004. He reports to VP/General Manager John Mozeliak.

Under Luhnow's guidance, the Cardinals have added top prospects into the club's minor league system which have aided the big-league club and assisted the team in trades. Current Cardinals players Colby Rasmus, Jaime Garcia, Mitchell Boggs, Allen Craig, Tyler Greene and Jon Jay were draft picks under Luhnow's watch, as well as top prospects Zack Cox, Lance Lynn and Shelby Miller.

During 2004, Luhnow oversaw the opening of the Cardinals baseball academy in the Dominican Republic and has directed an international scouting effort that has produced current reliever Fernando Salas and prospects Eduardo Sanchez, Carlos Martinez and Oscar Taveras. In addition to his work in scouting, from 2003-2007 Luhnow led the development of proprietary player evaluation methods to assist in player personnel decisions at both the amateur and professional level.

Luhnow, 44, is the founder, former President and COO of Archetype Solutions, Inc., and was General Manager and VP of Marketing for Petstore.com. Prior to that, he spent five years with the global management consulting firm of McKinsey and Company, where he was elevated to Associate Principal shortly before leaving to become an entrepreneur. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania with dual Bachelor of Science degrees in economics and engineering, and received his MBA from Kellogg Graduate School of Management at Northwestern University. Luhnow was born and raised in Mexico City, Mexico and is fluent in Spanish. Luhnow and his family reside in St Louis.

MICHAEL GIRSCH
ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Girsch begins his first season as the Cardinals' Assistant General Manager. He was appointed to the position in January of this year. He will assist General Manager John Mozeliak in all aspects of the club's baseball operations. Girsch's direct responsibilities include overseeing the Cardinals' analytical department.

A native of Chicago, Ill., Girsch has been a member of the Cardinals organization since 2006. His most recent role was as Director of Baseball Development in which he oversaw the club's analytical department and assisted in player evaluation and scouting. He was also instrumental in the creation and development of the team's RedBirdDog computer system that coordinates amateur and professional scouting reports, minor league game reports, performance data and health information.

Girsch, 34, holds degrees from both the University of Notre Dame and the University of Chicago Booth School of Business where he earned his MBA. He and his wife, Kelly, reside in St. Louis with their four children, twins Addison and Eleanor (6), Claire (4) and Thomas (3).

JOHN VUCH
FARM DIRECTOR

John Vuch is in his 24th season in Baseball Operations and his 33rd overall with the Cardinals. Vuch was promoted to Farm Director on September 16, 2010, after spending more than three years as Director of Minor League Operations. The 2010 Cardinals Minor League system had the highest combined winning percentage of any Major League organization last season.

In his current role as farm director, Vuch oversees all aspects of the Cardinals player development system, he is responsible for the daily operations of the Cardinals' farm system and is involved with the club's minor league player personnel decisions. Vuch has worked several years in the player development department, serving as the main contact for Cardinals' minor league players. He began working for the Cardinals as a "runner" in 1979 and worked in the Sales Department from 1985 to 1987.

He was awarded the Harry Mitauer Good Guy Award by the St. Louis chapter of the Baseball Writer's Association of America at their 51st annual dinner on January 19, 2009. A St. Louis native, Vuch graduated from Oakville High School and the University of Missouri-St. Louis with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration. Vuch and his wife, Maria, reside in south St. Louis County with their children Jack (16), Hayley (13) and Anna (10).

MIKE JORGENSEN
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Mike Jorgensen currently serves as a Special Assistant to the General Manager after being promoted to his current post on September 22, 2001. He served as director of player development for 10 seasons, since February 1992, before his current role and was the team's minor league hitting instructor/coordinator in1990 and 1991.

Upon retiring as a player after the 1985 season, 'Jorgy' was hired as an instructor in the Cardinals' minor league system. Midway through the 1986 season, he was named manager at St. Petersburg and led the team to an 88-48 finish and the Florida State League championship. He also managed the Triple-A Louisville Redbirds from 1987 to 1989. Jorgensen made his big-league managerial debut following the dismissal of Cardinals skipper Joe Torre on June 16, 1995, and guided the team to a 41-55 mark. While managing the field operations, he also remained in his post as director of player development.

Jorgensen was a lefthanded-hitting first baseman/outfielder during a major league career that spanned 18 seasons. He was selected by the New York Mets in the June 1966 free-agent draft and made his big-league debut in 1968. He was traded to Montreal at the start of the 1972 season, his first of five full seasons with the Expos. He went on to play for Oakland, Texas, the Mets again, Atlanta and St. Louis.

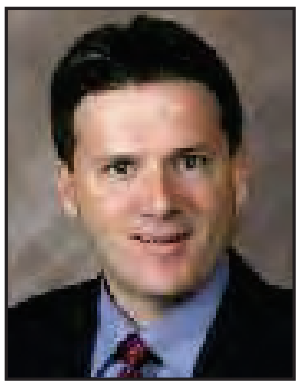
Jorgensen, 62, graduated from Francis Lewis High School in Flushing, N.Y., attended St. John's University and served from 1967-1972 in the United Stated Marine Corps Reserve. He and his wife, Brenda, have three married children; Brian, Kristen and Eric, and four grandsons: Eric, Jacob, James and Owen.

GARY LaROCQUE
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Gary LaRocque joined the St. Louis organization in 2008 as Senior Special Assistant to the General Manager. He is in his 36th year in professional baseball in player development and scouting. He served in senior management levels for the New York Mets beginning in 1998, as Scouting Director, Assistant General Manager and Vice President / Player Development and Scouting through 2005 and was appointed Vice President of Professional Scouting in 2006.

Before joining the Mets, Gary started his professional playing career as a minor league infielder in 1975 with the Milwaukee Brewers, and began a 19-year career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1979 as a minor league coach. He began managing in 1981 through 1983 in the Pioneer League and Gulf Coast Rookie Leagues, followed by the Class AA Texas League for four seasons and in 1988 managed in the California League. LaRocque moved into the scouting department in 1989 as an area scout and from 1992-1997 was a regional scouting supervisor for the Dodgers.

LaRocque acquired his degree in secondary Education (Mathematics) in 1975 from the University of Hartford, West Hartford, Conn., and was elected to the Athletic Hall of Fame at the University of Hartford in 1993. Gary and his wife Teri have two children, Chris and Ashley.

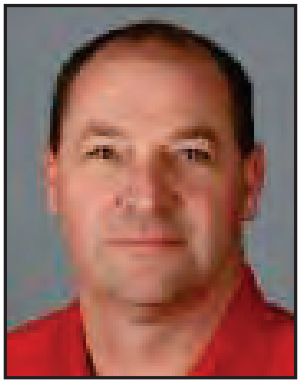


MATT SLATER
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO GENERAL MANAGER

Slater joined the Cardinals organization in 2007 and is in his 21st year in Major League Baseball. Named Special Assistant to the General Manager in December 2007, in his role as senior talent evaluator, Matt is responsible for scouting Major League, minor league, amateur and international players. Furthermore, Matt aids the General Manager in player management and roster composition. For the past six years, he has also served as a consultant/advisor to the Orix Buffaloes Baseball Club of Japan's Nippon Professional Baseball league.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Slater served in various management capacities for the Los Angeles Dodger for nine years, including Director of Scouting Operations, Director of Baseball Operations and Director of Professional Scouting. While with the Dodgers, he oversaw scouting operations while also being involved with contract negotiations, arbitration and roster management. Before his time with the Dodgers, Slater worked with the Baltimore Orioles from 1995-98 as the Administrator of Scouting. He got his start in professional baseball with the Milwaukee Brewers as Scouting and Player Development Assistant.

Slater, a native of Fort Wayne, Indiana, graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. in 1993, with a degree in Business Administration – Organizational Management and has a law degree from Southwestern Law School in Los Angeles, Calif. He resides in Chesterfield, Mo. with his wife, Thomasine, and their three children, Brandon (10), Madison (7) and Jacob (7).

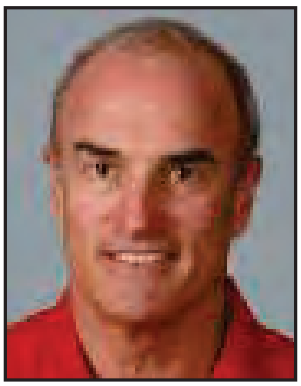


GREG HAUCK
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Hauck this year begins his first season as the Head Athletic Trainer with the Cardinals organization. He joined the team in January of 2005 and served as the Assistant Athletic Trainer for six seasons. A native of Ashland, Oregon, Greg lived and worked in Phoenix, Ariz., prior to joining the Cardinals.

Before his move to St. Louis, Greg taught and practiced Sports Medicine in the Arizona school system. From 1997 through the 2000 season he was the Medical Rehab and Minor League Strength and Conditioning Coordinator with the Oakland Athletics. He spent 10 years prior to that role as an Athletic Trainer in the A's organization.

Hauck received his Bachelor of Science degree from Southern Oregon University and his masters degree from the University of Phoenix. In addition to being a Certified Athletic Trainer, he is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach. The 45-year-old Hauck enjoys reading and spending time with his family. He and his wife, Carrie, have a daughter Courtney (11) and son, Garrett (5), and make their home in St. Louis with their dog, Sara.

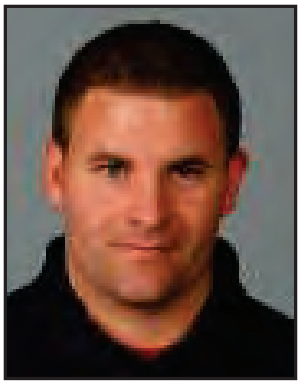


BARRY WEINBERG
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Barry Weinberg is in his 14th season with the Cardinals athletic training staff. After serving the club in the role of Head Athletic Trainer for 13 seasons, he begins his role as Assistant Athletic Trainer this season. Prior to joining St. Louis, Weinberg spent 16 seasons as Head Athletic Trainer for the Oakland A's. He has enjoyed two World Series victories as a Head Athletic Trainer, in 2006 with the Cardinals and in 1989 with Oakland. He began his athletic training career in 1974 with the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he spent five seasons in their minor league system. He was the New York Yankees' assistant athletic trainer from 1979-81.

Weinberg, 59, is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the National Strength and Conditioning Association. He received a bachelor's degree in physical education from Springfield (Mass.) College and a master's degree in athletic training from Indiana University. Weinberg was the American League athletic trainer at the 1987 and 1993 All-Star games and the National League athletic trainer at the 2005 and 2009 All-Star games.

Weinberg was inducted into the Washington D.C. Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 1996 and received the Distinguished Alumni award from Springfield College in 2000. He was the producer and host for a baseball training and conditioning video in 2000. A native of Silver Spring, Md., Weinberg is a Broadway enthusiast and enjoys country and western music, photography and golf.



ADAM OLSEN
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER, P.T.

Adam Olsen begins his second season in St. Louis with the Cardinals as Assistant Athletic Trainer. Prior to moving to St. Louis, Olsen served the organization as the Medical Rehab Coordinator in Jupiter, Florida for four seasons.

Olsen is a native of De Pere, Wisconsin and a graduate of Auburn University where he earned his Athletic Training Certification. He worked as an athletic trainer for Disney's Wide World of Sports and Wildwood High School in the Orlando area before returning to school for his Master's in Physical Therapy from The University of Wisconsin-Madison. Following graduation, Olsen completed a post-professional Sports Physical Therapy Fellowship at Champion Sports Medicine and the American Sports Medicine Institute (ASMI) under the direction of Dr. James Andrews and Kevin Wilk in Birmingham, Alabama.

Olsen, 33, and his wife, Amy, reside in St. Louis with their daughter, Annabelle Frances, and their dogs Maddie and Bailey.

PETE PRINZI
STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Pete Prinzi is in his 12th season at the major league level for the Redbirds and his 15th year in the Cardinals' system overall. From 1997 through 1999, he served as the club's minor league strength and conditioning coordinator.

Prinzi, 41, graduated from Florida State University where he played football for the Seminoles. After playing professionally for three seasons (1991-93) in the European Football League, he returned to his alma mater as an assistant strength coach from 1994 through 1996.

A native of Tampa, Fla., Prinzi resides in St. Louis.

DR. GEORGE PALETTA JR.
HEAD TEAM PHYSICIAN & MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Dr. George A. Paletta Jr. is in his fifth season as the team's medical director and continues in his role as the Cardinals' head team physician. It will be his 13th season as head physician, 14th overall with the club. He served as the team's orthopedic consultant in 2006, with the eight seasons prior to that as the team's head physician.

Before joining the Cardinals, Paletta worked with the New York Mets as the associate team physician from July 1996 through 1997. He currently works with both the St. Louis Blues and the St. Louis Rams and has been an assistant team physician for the Cleveland Browns and Cleveland Cavaliers.

Paletta is a 1984 graduate of The College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, Mass. He completed medical school in 1988, receiving an M.D. from Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine in Baltimore. Paletta completed a surgical internship at Northwestern University Hospital in Chicago and then a residency in orthopedic surgery at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York where he also completed a research fellowship in sports medicine. After residency, he served as a fellow in sports medicine in 1994 and 1995 at the Cleveland Clinic. He then completed an additional fellowship in pediatric and adolescent sports medicine at Children's Hospital of Michigan.

In January 1996, Paletta joined the staff of the Hospital for Special Surgery as an assistant attending surgeon on the Sports Medicine and Shoulder Service. He also served on the faculty of Cornell University Medical College as an instructor in orthopedic surgery. In 1998, he joined the faculty of Washington University's Department of Orthopedic Surgery as an assistant professor. In August of 2005 he joined the Orthopedic Center of St. Louis.

DR. LYNDON GROSS
ORTHOPEDICS

Dr. Gross will be in his fifth season with the Cardinals as an orthopedic doctor with the club. He works alongside Dr. Paletta at the Orthopedic Center of St. Louis.

A native of New York, Gross graduated from Cornell University in Ithaca, New York and graduated from medical school at the State University of New York in Brooklyn. He did his medical internship at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, Pittsburgh, Pa., and completed an orthopedic residency at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center as well.

A board certified orthopedic surgeon, Gross fellowship trained in Sports Medicine at American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, Alabama, under the instruction of Dr. James Andrews and Dr. William Clancy, Jr. Along with his role with the Cardinals, he is the team physician for the Saint Louis University Billikens covering all team sports. Gross is also the team physician for Lindbergh, Fox and Parkway High Schools as well as an assistant professor at Saint Louis University Department of Orthopedic Surgery. He formerly served as an assistant team physician for the Washington Redskins.

DR. JOHN ELLENA
TEAM INTERNIST

Dr. Ellena will be in his fourth season as team internist after joining the staff in 2008. Currently, he is the Medical Director for the BJC Medical Group which is a multi-specialty group employing 130 physicians across the BJC system.

Dr. Ellena completed his undergraduate degree at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale and continued his education at the SIU School of Medicine in Springfield, IL, graduating in 1983. After his internship and residency in Internal Medicine at The Jewish Hospital of St. Louis/Washington University, Major Ellena spent the next three years in the Air Force assigned to Scott AFB and the Military Airlift Command.

Recognized for his insight, Dr. Ellena was appointed to the Board of Directors for BJC Healthcare, the largest employer in the State of Missouri, with 13 member hospitals and 26,000 employees. He continues to serve on the Patient Care Committee of the Board and the Medical Executive Committee at Barnes Jewish West County Hospital.

Dr. Ellena was born and raised 90 miles north of St. Louis in Virden, Illinois. Away from work he enjoys skiing, travel and scuba diving.

DR. RALPH FILSON
TEAM CHIROPRACTOR

Dr. Ralph Filson begins his 14th year with the Cardinals as the team's chiropractor. He served as the team chiropractor for the St. Louis Rams from 1999 t0 2003.

A native of St. Louis, Dr. Filson is a graduate of Logan College of Chiropractic and is a full-time professor at Logan University. Filson is a member of the Logan University Post Graduate Faculty and teaches throughout the United States. He has authored a textbook on chiropractic procedures as well as many journal articles.

Filson and his wife, Mari, have four children: Kerry, twins Emma and Samuel, and Tara, and one grandson, Joe.

MANAGER, COACHES AND PLAYERS

ANTHONY (TONY) LA RUSSA JR. (10) — MANAGER

Tony La Russa completed his15th season as the Cardinals manager in 2010 and enters the 2011 season as the dean of all active managers. On October 18, 2010, he signed a one-year contract to be the Manager of the Cardinals for a team-leading 16th season. His current 15 seasons are the most continuous years of managerial service with the organization, surpassing Hall of Famer Red Schoendienst (12). La Russa has guided his Cardinal teams to a franchise record 1,318 wins and is tops on the Cards all-time games managed list with 2,429 games.

La Russa has led his Cardinals teams to eight division titles, two National League Pennants and a 10th World Championship title in 2006. In addition to ranking first on the Cardinals all-time games managed list (2,429), he is the 17th manager in Major League history to surpass 2,000 games managed with one team. He currently ranks 3rd on Major League Baseball's all-time managerial wins list with 2,638 and 2nd in all-time games managed with 4,935. With the Redbirds World Series title in 2006, La Russa joined Sparky Anderson as the only managers in Major League history to have won a World Series in both the American and National League, and he and Leo Durocher are the only managers in Major League history to have 500 or more wins with three different teams.

La Russa's Cardinal teams have finished above .500 in 12 of his 15 seasons, including the 2004 and 2005 seasons in which the team recorded 105 and 100 wins, respectively, making La Russa just the second Cardinals manager to oversee two 100-win campaigns. His Cardinals teams have finished no lower than 3rd place in all but three seasons and they have held 1st place or been within a game of 1st place during the month of September in nine of the past 11 seasons. Prior to 2007's 78-84 finish, the Cardinals were the lone National League team to have posted a winning record in every season since 2000.

The 105 Cardinals victories in 2004 were the most by any La Russa-managed club in his career and the 105 wins tied for the second most in Cardinals' franchise history with the 1943 and 1944 clubs. The team's 105-57 record was tops in the Majors in 2004. La Russa was honored that season with the Negro League Museum's C.I. Taylor Award as Manager of the Year. Tony has also been honored as the N.L. Manager of the Year by the BBWAA in 2002 when the Cardinals won 97 games after he guided the team to the N.L. Central title in an emotion-filled season.

La Russa was hired by the Cardinals on October 23, 1995, after managing for 17 years in the American League with Oakland and Chicago. In his first N.L. season, La Russa guided the Cardinals to the 1996 Central Division title and was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Regarded by his peers as one of the game's top managers, La Russa's honors include Manager of the Year recognition in five seasons, eight N.L. Central Division titles, two N.L. pennants, five A.L. Western Division titles, three A.L. pennants and two World Series championships. He has served as manager of the 2007 and 2005 National League All-Star teams and was a coach for the N.L. All-Star team in both 2003 and 2009.

La Russa began his professional managing career in 1978 with Knoxville of the Class- AA Southern League before taking his first major league managing job on August 2, 1979, with the Chicago White Sox. In seven-plus seasons (1979-86) with the White Sox, La Russa quickly established his managerial acumen. In 1983, he guided Chicago to the A.L. West title and the best record in the major leagues, 99-63. He was rewarded with Manager of the Year accolades from the Sporting News, the Associated Press and the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

In 1984, La Russa's White Sox were tied for first place at the All-Star break before finishing fifth with a 74-88 record. He was relieved of his duties on June 19, 1986, and took over as the Oakland manager on July 7. In just his second full year with the A's, La Russa managed the club to an A.L. West-record 104 wins, the A.L. pennant and into the 1988 World Series. He again earned Manager of the Year honors from the BBWAA and the Sporting News. For three straight years, 1988-90, the A's led the major leagues in victories, only the 11th time in history that a team had accomplished such a feat. During that span, La Russa's A's became the first team to win three consecutive A.L. pennants since the 1976-78 New York Yankees.

In 1989, La Russa guided the Athletics to their fourth World Championship since the club moved to Oakland, sweeping the Giants in four straight games during the earthquake-interrupted Bay Bridge Series.

On July 14, 1991, La Russa became the 40th manager in major league history to win 1,000 career games. He earned a third Manager of the Year award in 1992 after steering the A's to their fourth A.L. West title in five years. He is Oakland's all-time leader in games managed (1,471) and victories (798).

The former infielder signed his first pro contract with the Kansas City Athletics on the night he graduated from high school in 1962. He made his major league debut with Kansas City just one year later. La Russa didn't return to the majors again until 1968, this time with the A's of Oakland. He went on to play parts of four seasons in Oakland before concluding his big-league playing career with Atlanta and the Chicago Cubs. Overall, his professional career spanned 16 seasons.

2. Bobby Cox	67-69	.493
3. Tony La Russa	59-51	.536
4. Casey Stengel	37-26	.587

La Russa, the 48th manager in Cardinals history, actually was a member of the organization once previously, when he was a player-coach for the Cardinals Triple-A New Orleans affiliate in 1977.

A graduate of Florida State University's School of Law in 1978, La Russa passed the bar exam in December 1979, making him one of only five lawyer/managers in baseball history. The other four are Monte Ward (New York Giants, Brooklyn and Providence, late 1800s), Hughie Jennings (Detroit, 1907-20, New York Giants, 1924), Miller Huggins (St. Louis Cardinals and New York Yankees, 1913-29) and Branch Rickey (St. Louis Browns, 1913-15, St. Louis Cardinals, 1919-25). All of La Russa's predecessors are in the Hall of Fame.

La Russa, 66, makes his off-season home in Alamo, Calif., with his wife, Elaine, and their two daughters, Bianca Tai (9/14/79) and Devon Kai (8/17/82). La Russa was born 10/4/44 in Tampa, Fla., and graduated from Jefferson High School in Tampa. He also holds a degree in industrial management from The University of South Florida in Tampa. He is the founder and chairperson of Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) and is an active member in the Cardinals' community foundation, Cardinals Care. He teamed with author H.G. Bissinger ("Friday Night Lights") on a book titled "Three Nights in August" that was released in 2005. La Russa was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

DAVID (DAVE) EDWIN DUNCAN (18)

PITCHING COACH

Duncan, 65, will be serving in his 16th season as the Cardinals' pitching coach after being appointed to the post on October 23, 1995. This season marks his 32nd as a pitching coach - the most all-time in the majors, surpassing Galen Cisco's 28 years.

The Cardinals pitching staff had the fourth-lowest ERA (3.57) in the National League in 2010 and Adam Wainwright became the fourth Cardinals 20-game winner under Dave Duncan's watch, joining Chris Carpenter, Matt Morris and Darryl Kile.

His 2005 pitching staff posted the Cardinals first ERA (3.45) title since 1969 and the starting staff recorded 81 wins, the most by a Cardinals team since the beginning of Divisional play. His 2004 pitching staff finished percentage points behind Atlanta for the National League's ERA title (3.75), while the team's 3.01 bullpen ERA ranked among the league's best as did the team's 89 quality starts. In each of his first two seasons, the pitching staff set club records for strikeouts and ranked in the top six in the league in ERA.

Before joining the Cardinals, Duncan had been Oakland's pitching coach since July 1986, when he joined the A's along with manager Tony La Russa. Under Duncan's guidance, the Oakland staff ranked as one of the best in baseball, leading the American League in ERA from 1988 through 1990. In 1990, the A's had the lowest earned-run average in the majors, becoming just the second A.L. staff to do so since the inception of the DH rule in 1973.

Duncan began his coaching career in 1978 with the Cleveland Indians. In 1982, he was hired as Seattle's pitching coach, and the Mariners responded by leading the A.L. in strikeouts and finishing second in saves and shutouts. He left the Mariners in 1983 to join La Russa and the Chicago White Sox.

A former catcher, Duncan signed with the Kansas City A's in 1963 and made his major league debut in 1964. When the A's moved to Oakland, Duncan moved with them and appeared in both the 1971 and 1972 A.L. Championship Series and the 1972 World Series. Duncan concluded his playing career with two-year stints in both Cleveland (1973-74) and Baltimore (1975-76).

During his playing and coaching career, Duncan has been associated with eight Cy Young Award winners: he coached Bob Welch, Dennis Eckersley, LaMarr Hoyt and Chris Carpenter; and caught Vide Blue and Jim Hunter in Oakland, and Jim Palmer and Mike Cuellar in Baltimore.

Duncan and his wife, Jeanine, have two sons, David (Shelley) and Chris. Shelley was drafted by the New York Yankees in the June 2001 draft and made his Major League debut on July 20, 2007. Chris was a supplemental first-round draft pick by the Cardinals in the June 1999 draft and spent three-plus seasons as part of the Cardinals Major League team before a mid-season trade to Boston in 2009. Dave was honored at the January 2009 St. Louis Baseball Writers Dinner with a Meritorious Service Award. He and Jeanine make their off-season home near Table Rock Lake, Mo.

DEREK JANSEN LILLIQUIST (36)

BULLPEN COACH

Lilliquist is in his 10th year with the Cardinals organization and his first as the team's bullpen coach. "Lilly" served as the Jupiter Complex pitching coordinator for the past three seasons working with rehabilitating pitchers. From 2004-07 he served as the pitching coach for Palm Beach (A). Palm Beach made the playoffs twice in that span and won the 2005 Florida State League Championship as the pitching staff registered the second best ERA (3.94) in the FSL.

Lilliquist initiated his career with the Cardinals at rookie level Johnson City in 2002 then moved on to Peoria in 2003. Before joining the Cardinals, Lilliquist was a high school baseball coach at Vero Beach (Fla.) High School from 1998 to 2001.

The former lefthanded starter-turned-reliever spent five-plus years in the Major Leagues, recording 25 victories. In 1992 while with Cleveland, Lilliquist made 71 appearances, going 5-3 with a 1.75 ERA. The next season with Cleveland, he earned 10 saves while recording a 2.25 ERA. He was drafted in 1987 by the Atlanta Braves in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the June free agent draft and spent time in the Major Leagues with Atlanta, San Diego, Cleveland, Boston and Cincinnati, ending his professional career in 1997.

Lilliquist, 45, graduated from Sarasota (Fla.) High School and had an outstanding collegiate career at the University of Georgia where he compiled a 31-12 record with a 3.30 ERA in three years. In 1987 he led Georgia to the SEC title and a first-ever trip to the NCAA College World Series after being named College Pitcher of the Year by Baseball America.

He makes his off-season home in Vero Beach with his children Derek (17) and Alexandra (15).

MARK DAVID McGWIRE (25)

HITTING COACH

Mark McGwire was named as the Cardinals hitting coach on October 26, 2009, his first return to uniform since announcing his retirement as a player following the 2001 season. McGwire, along with the Chicago Cubs Sammy Sosa, inspired a renaissance of the National Pastime in 1998 as he blasted his way to a then major league record 70 home runs, eclipsing Roger Maris' 1961 record of 61 homers. He currently ranks T8th with Alex Rodriguez on Major League Baseball's all-time home run list (583) and holds the majors single-season rookie record for home runs with 49, set in 1987 with the Oakland A's.

A 12-time Major League All-Star selection, McGwire played parts of 12 seasons with the Oakland A's (1986-97) and four-plus seasons for the Cardinals (1997-2001).

"Big Mac" was selected by the Oakland A's in the first round (10th player overall) of the June 1994 amateur draft out of the University of Southern California. He was voted the consensus American League Rookie of the Year in 1987 when his 49 homers led the league and tied for the Major League high. He hit a dramatic game winning homer in the ninth inning of Game 3 in 1988 World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers and was a key cog in the A's World Championship title run in 1989 when Oakland defeated the San Francisco Giants in the "Earthquake Series". He hit an Oakland record and major league-leading 52 home runs in 1996, becoming just the 14th player in Major League history to hit 50 home runs.

In 1997, Mark became only the second Major Leaguer, after Babe Ruth, to hit 50 or more homers in consecutive seasons and he became the first player to hit 20 home runs with two different teams in one season, hitting 24 homers for the Cardinals after arriving in a July 31 trade from Oakland. He matched his previous single-season high for home runs on Sept. 16 vs. LA, when he launched a 517-foot blast off the facade above the left-center field scoreboard — at the time the longest estimated homer at Busch Stadium. Earlier that same day he'd signed a contract extension with the Cardinals through the year 2000.

In addition to breaking the single-season home record in 1998, Mark led all Major Leaguers with a .752 slugging average, second in N.L. history to Rogers Hornsby's .756 average in 1925. One of that season's more memorable blasts was a 545-foot shot off Florida's Livan Hernandez on 5/16 that caromed off the St. Louis Post-Dispatch sign in dead center field. Mark connected for historic home run No. 62 at 8:18 p.m. Central Time on Tue., Sept. 8 vs. CHI. With nobody on, two outs and the Cards trailing, 2-0, in the fourth inning, McGwire lined the first pitch from Cubs righthander Steve Trachsel an estimated 341 feet over the left-field wall — his shortest homer of the year. The ball cleared the wall 15 feet to the right of the foul pole and was retrieved under the stands by grounds crew worker Tim Forneris. In the Sept. 27 season finale vs. MON, Mark hit a solo homer (No. 69) off Mike Thurman in the third and blasted No. 70 off Carl Pavano in the seventh — a three-run shot to left in his final at-bat of the year.

He followed up his record-breaking season by hitting 65 home runs in 1999 to lead all Major Leaguers for the fourth straight season. He joined the exclusive 500 career home run club on Aug. 5 vs. SD, clouting a pair of homers off Andy Ashby: No. 500 was a 451-foot solo blast to center field; No. 501 was a 479-foot solo drive to left-center. He became only the second player, after Harmon Killebrew, to have a multihomer game while reaching 500 homers. He was named to baseball's All-Century Team during the 1999 World Series. At the time of Mark's contract signing in 1997, he announced that he was founding the Mark McGwire Foundation for Children to assist agencies that work with child-abuse victims...Mark and his family reside in southern California.

DAVID (DAVE) LAWRENCE McKAY (39)

FIRST-BASE COACH

McKay, 61, enters his 16th season as the Cardinals' first-base coach and his 26th season on Tony La Russa's coaching staff. McKay was La Russa's first-base coach in Oakland from 1989-95 and handled bullpen and bench coach duties for the A's beginning in 1984. In all, McKay spent 16 years as a player or coach in the Oakland system.

McKay was signed by the Minnesota Twins in 1971 and spent four seasons in the minor leagues. He broke into the majors in a big way, homering off Detroit's Vern Ruhle in his first big-league at-bat on Aug. 22, 1975. He hit safely in 21 of his first 22 major league games.

After the 1976 season, the Twins lost McKay in the expansion draft to Toronto, where McKay was the starting third baseman in the first game in Blue Jays franchise history. After splitting time between Toronto and Syracuse in 1979, McKay signed with the A's in 1980. He played for Oakland through 1982, helping the A's to the 1981 Western Division crown by batting .288 in the second half and belting a home run in the divisional playoff series against Kansas City. He spent the 1983 season in the minor leagues as a player-coach.

McKay attended Columbia Basin Junior College in Pasco, Wash., and Creighton University in Omaha, Neb. Born in Vancouver, B.C., McKay was inducted into the Canadian National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2001. He and his wife, Lene, who is from Denmark, make their home in Scottsdale, Ariz. Their son, Cody, was a catcher in the Cardinals organization from 2004-2005. Dave and Lena enjoy spending time in the offseason with Cody, his wife, Tiernan, and their three children: Eden, Rocco and Gioia.

JOSE MANUEL OQUENDO (11)

THIRD-BASE COACH

Oquendo is in his 12th season as the Cardinals' third-base coach, after joining the club's major league staff in 1999 as bench coach. Upon ending his playing career, he was a field instructor in the Cardinals farm system in 1997 before managing the Redbirds' New Jersey affiliate to a 34-41 finish in 1998.

Oquendo's professional playing career spanned 17 seasons and included big-league duty with the New York Mets (1983-84) and Cardinals (1986-95). Dubbed the "Secret Weapon" during his 10 seasons with the Redbirds, Oquendo established single-season major league records for the highest fielding percentage (.996) and fewest errors by a second baseman (three) in 1990. He also led the league in fielding in 1989 and compiled a .992 fielding average at second base for his career.

Oquendo batted .286 for the Cardinals' 1987 pennant-winning club and hit a career-high .291 in 1989 while playing in a league-high 163 games. In 1988, Oquendo became the first National League player since 1918 to play all nine positions in one season.

A native of Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico, Oquendo, 47, now makes his home in St. Louis County with his wife, Zenaida, their four children, and granddaughter, Gabriela. He was voted top utility man on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005. Oquendo managed the Puerto Rican team in the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and again in 2009 and was the manager of the victorious World Team during the MLB Futures Game that was played during the 2009 All-Star Week in St. Louis.

JOSEPH (JOE) PAUL PETTINI (49)

BENCH COACH

Pettini is serving in his 10th season as the Cardinals bench coach. He was the organization's minor league field coordinator from 1997-2001 before he began working with the Major League club. Pettini managed eight seasons in the system, his last stop at Class-AAA Louisville, where he guided the Redbirds to the 1995 American Association championship. Overall, he was 475-569 at the helm of the Cardinals' farm affiliates.

The 56-year-old Pettini began his managerial career in 1989 with Hamilton, Ontario. He had stops at St. Petersburg in 1990 (60-74) and at Arkansas for the 1991 to 1993 seasons (175-229).

Pettini's playing career started after signing with the Montreal Expos as a non-drafted free agent in 1977. In 1980, he was traded to the San Francisco Giants, where he played for four seasons. He was signed by Louisville in 1984 and played with the Redbirds for three seasons.

Pettini was born January 26, 1955, in Wheeling, W.V., and graduated from Brooke High School in Wellsburg, W.V., in 1973. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Mercer University in Macon, Ga. Pettini and his wife Barbara were married on November 21, 1981. The couple reside in Bethany, W.V. They have two children: Amy and Joseph, and a granddaughter, Marlee Joe. Pettini enjoys bass fishing, hunting and golfing.

LOUIS (LOU) CLARK BROCK (20)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Lou Brock, named as a special instructor on December 9, 1994, assists with base-running and outfield instruction during spring training and periodically throughout the season. He served as a base-running consultant for Montreal in 1993, Los Angeles in 1988 and Minnesota in 1987; all three clubs increased their stolen base totals over the previous season.

Brock, 71, is the National League's all-time leader with 938 stolen bases, including an N.L.-record 118 thefts in 1974. He established a major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals (1965-76) and led the league in steals eight times. He was the first player to steal at least 50 bases and hit 20 homers in the same season, posting a 21-homer, 52-steal campaign in 1967. His 3,023 hits rank 23rd on the all-time list.

While teammate Bob Gibson served as the pitching linchpin in the 1964, 1967 and 1968 World Series, Brock was the club's offensive catalyst. He established major league records for highest career batting average (.391) and most stolen bases in a single Series (seven, in both 1967 and 1968).

In 1985, Brock was inducted into the Hall of Fame. His uniform No. 20 is one of 11 that have been retired by the Cardinals. Since the end of his playing career, Brock has been involved in many marketing and promotional ventures. He is the founder and president of Brockworld Products. He also worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984. He was voted leftfielder on the All-Busch Stadium II team at the end of the 2005 season. The National League has named the award given to the N.L.'s stolen base champion the "Lou Brock Award" in honor of Lou's success on the basepaths.

ROBERT (BOB) GIBSON (45)

SPECIAL INSTRUCTOR

Bob Gibson, who earned distinction as one of baseball's fiercest competitors and most dominating pitchers of all time as a Cardinal from 1959 to 1975, is in his 16th season as Cardinals special instructor. Gibson, 75, served as the Cardinals' bullpen coach in 1995. He formerly was a pitching coach under Joe Torre for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84).

A winner of the N.L. Cy Young Award in 1968 and 1970, Gibson also earned league MVP honors in 1968, when he set a major league record for lowest ERA (1.12) for a pitcher with 300 or more innings. That June, he pitched five shutouts, tying an N.L. record for one month.

In World Series competition, few players compared to Gibson. He pitched a record eight consecutive complete games over the course of the 1964, 1967 and 1968 Series, winning seven games. His 35 strikeouts in the 1968 Series still stand as a record, as does his single-game mark of 17 strikeouts, established in the Series opener. He also holds the career mark for most games with 10 or more strikeouts (five).

Gibson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981. His career totals include a team-record 251 victories and 3,117 strikeouts. He fanned more than 200 batters nine times, won nine Gold Gloves and was a nine-time N.L. All-Star. His uniform No. 45 is one of 11 retired by the Cardinals. Gibson was voted top starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium II team in 2005.

He and his wife, Wendy, make their home in Bellevue, Neb. His son, Chris, was signed by the Cardinals in January of 2008 and spent playing time in both the Cardinals and Los Angeles Dodgers minor league system.

ALBERT FRED (RED) SCHOENDIENST (2)

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

Red Schoendienst has been involved in professional baseball for the past 69 seasons. He coached in St. Louis from 1961-64 under Manager Johnny Keane and in 1965 began a 12-year stint as Cardinals manager. His 12 seasons at the helm of the Redbirds stood as the longest tenure in club history until current manager, Tony La Russa, managed his 13th season in 2008. Schoendienst managed the Cardinals to a World Series championship in 1967 and a National League pennant in 1968. He also served as interim manager of the Redbirds in 1980 and 1990, and coached for the Oakland A's in 1977 and 1978.

As a player, Schoendienst appeared with the Cardinals in 15 seasons, mostly as their second baseman. He played in three World Series: in 1946 with the Cardinals and in 1957 and 1958 with Milwaukee. He was chosen to 10 N.L. All-Star Game squads, and in 1950 cracked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning. He also managed the National League All-Stars to victories in 1968 and 1969.

In 1989, Schoendienst was paid baseball's ultimate honor with his induction into the Hall of Fame. During his career, he collected 2,449 hits, including a league-high 200 in 1957, batted .289, and tied or led the league in fielding at his position seven times. His uniform No. 2 was retired by the Cardinals in 1996.

Schoendienst was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame on November 7, 1987. During his playing days, he also participated with the Budweiser national bowling team.

"Red" was born on February 2, 1923, at Germantown, Ill., and was married to the late Mary Schoendienst for 53 years (Sept. 20, 1947). They had four children, all of whom are married: Colleen (6/23/51), Cathleen (10/16/52), Eileen (3/19/57) and Kevin (11/3/58).

2004 – In first season with the Blue Jays, won 10 games for 3rd double-digit win season in last four years...allowed three or fewer runs in 18 of first 28 starts...tossed first career AL complete game on 5/2 at CWS...tossed 3rd career shutout on 6/9 vs. LAD...won four consecutive starts from 6/20-7/6, but followed it up by losing four consecutive starts, all to AL East opponents (8/8-24) a month later...shifted to bullpen on 9/18 and successfully converted five- of-five September save opportunities.

2003 – In arguably best season of career, went 10-9 with a 3.54 ERA in 36 games/29 starts in last contract season with Arizona ...set career high in strikeouts (142)...ranked 12th in NL in ERA... was suspended for 10 games for involvement in 4/20 brawl at St. Louis with Tino Martinez...tossed 5-hit shutout on 7/18 at SD...struck out career-high 11 on 7/28 at FLA.

2002 – Began season in bullpen, but made 29 starts in 2nd season with ARI...went 8-9 with a 4.33 ERA as a starter...was 6-4 when pitching on 4 days' rest, 0-4 when going on extra rest (5 or more days)...3 of 8 wins came at COL's expense. 2002 POSTSEASON – Allowed four runs in 3.2 innings in a Game 3 start at St. Louis (10/5) taking the Division Series clinching loss.

2001 – Pitching as both a starter (18 starts) and in 30 appearances out of the bullpen, won 11 games as ARI claimed first World Championship...went 6-3 with a 2.39 ERA in 20 games/9 starts on the road...went 7-3 with a 3.14 ERA in season's 2nd half. 2001 POSTSEASON – Made six appearances, starting three games...appeared as a starter and reliever in each series... posted a 1-1 record with a 2.49 ERA in 21.2 postseason innings with 13 strikeouts...started and picked up his only career post-season win in Game 3 of the NLDS at St. Louis (10/12) tossing 6.0 innings and allowing two runs on three hits with four K's...threw 7.2 scoreless innings in Game 5 of the World Series at NYY (11/1) for a no decision...retired the only batter he faced (Jeter) in Game 7 (11/4).

2000 – Pitched in just four games for the Expos before being dealt to Kansas City on 4/25 in exchange for Brad Rigby...in Royals debut, 4/28 vs. SEA, worked 4.0 one-hit scoreless innings...lost five consecutive starts 5/23-6/12 before being moved to the bullpen...was designated for assignment by the Royals on 7/28 to Omaha (AAA) making 18 appearances and one start.

1999 – Pitched as a starter, long man and middle reliever for the Expos...got starting nod and the win in Montreal's home opener, a 5-1 victory over NYM (4/8) and he recorded first big league hit, an infield single off Orel Hershiser...had been 0-for-42 to begin career...in all-Canada Series, threw first shutout on 6/5 at SkyDome...also hit first career home run (5/24 at PHI, a 2-run shot off Joel Bennett) and posted first save (3.0 scoreless innings, 10/2 at PHI).

1998 – In return to Expos organization, pitched in 56 games, but excelled as a starter, going 2-2 with a 3.08 ERA in that role... allowed 2 runs in 7.2 IP to secure initial MLB win, 5/15 at LAD.

1997 – Won nine games with Triple-A Iowa, but went winless in five big league decisions in only season in the Cubs system...had contract selected by the Cubs on 8/10 and spent final six weeks of the season in Chicago.

1993 - 1996 – In 1996 saw his first major league action since 1992 with the Pirates, appearing in relief nine times for Florida... pitched for Charlotte (AAA) in 1995, appearing in 34 games/18 starts...a right-shoulder strain limited him to just three games for Double-A Harrisburg in 1994...posted minor-league career-high 13 wins with Harrisburg in 1993, which ranked 2nd in the Eastern League.

1992 – Began season as member of Pittsburgh's Opening Day roster as a Rule 5 selection...pitched in one game for the Pirates, allowing two runs in 2.0 innings on 4/11 at PHI...first big league strikeout victim was Ruben Amaro.

1988 - 1991 – Allowed just one home run in133.2 innings in 1991 with Rockford (A)...in 1990 with Rookie-level GCL Expos, walked just 2.1 batters per 9.0 innings in his domestic debut... began his professional career with the Expos' Dominican Summer League in 1988 & '89.

OUTFIELDER/FIRST BASEMAN

CAREER:

- St. Louis becomes just his third professional team. Was drafted by the Houston Astros in the first round of the 1997 draft and spent 1999-2010 seasons in the majors with Houston before a trade-deadline deal in 2010 to the New York Yankees.
- Ranks fifth all-time in career homers by a switch-hitter (327)...is one of seven switch-hitters in baseball history to reach the 300 HR plateau.
- Leads all switch-hitters in home runs (323) and RBI (1084) since 2000. Has reached the 40-HR plateau in his career twice (2002 & 2006)...he and Mickey Mantle are the only switch-hitters to hit 40-or-more homers in at least two seasons.
- Is one of just four switch-hitters in Major League history with as many as eight seasons with 25-or more home runs: also Chipper Jones (10), Mickey Mantle (10) and Eddie Murray (12).
- Ranks second all-time among switch-hitters in slugging percentage with his .545 mark, trailing only Mickey Mantle (.557).
- Collected 309 home runs from 2000-2009, hitting at least 20 homers in each of the 10 seasons, one of just 11 players in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in each year of a decade (Carlos Lee and Alex Rodriguez also 2000-09).
- Also since 2000, ranks seventh among all Major League players in doubles (357), on-base percentage (.413) and RBI (1026).
- Hit his 300th career home run on June 13, 2009 at ARI (RHP Jon Garland). Teamed up with Ivan Rodriguez and Carlos Lee to become the first trio of teammates to reach the 300-home run plateau in the same season.
- Ranks in the top five in every major offensive statistical category in Houston Astros history. Is the club's all-time leader in slugging (.549); second in home runs (326); third in batting average (.296), RBI (1090), walks (1040), doubles (375), runs (1008) and total bases (3053); fourth in games played (1592) and fifth in hits (1648) and at-bats (5560).
- Is Houston's franchise career leader in postseason RBI (26) and walks (20), and ranks second with 34 hits, six home runs and eight doubles.
- Is one of only two Astros to collect as many as five 30-homer seasons (Jeff Bagwell, 9)...is the second Astro in club history with 10 consecutive 20-home run seasons (Jeff Bagwell 12).
- Has six career 100-RBI seasons, trailing only Jeff Bagwell's eight in Astros history...his three consecutive 100-RBI seasons (2006-08) are also tied for the second-most in club history, trailing only Bagwell's six consecutive from 1996-2001.
- Finished fifth in National League MVP voting in 2008, a season in which he led the N.L. with 46 doubles, while hitting a league-leading .345 with runners in scoring position and scored a career-high 114 runs.
- Selected to the 2008 National League All-Star team as the starting first baseman, his fifth appearance in a Midsummer Classic and his first by way of fan voting. Also participated in the Home Run Derby and finished with 14 homers, tied for third in the competition with Ryan Braun (MIL).
- Hit his first and only career walk-off home run on Aug. 29, 2008 vs. STL...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Berkman had hit more home runs (285) than any other player in baseball history without recording a walk-off homer.
- Scored at least one run in 15 consecutive games from April 26 to May 12, 2008 which tied the club record held by Carlos Beltran (Aug. 23-Sept. 7, 2004).
- His 136 RBI in 2006 set the franchise record for most RBI in a single season, breaking Jeff Bagwell's record 135 RBI in 1997.
- Led the Astros with six RBI in the 2005 World Series and hit .385. Overall during the 2005 playoffs, Berkman hit .333 with two home runs and 14 RBI.

- His grand slam in Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS vs. Atlanta (off Kyle Farnsworth) narrowed the Braves lead to 6-5 in a game the Astros ended up winning 7-6 in 18 innings - the longest game in postseason history.
- Finished third in the National League MVP voting in 2002. Led the league in RBI with 128 and ranked T3rd with 42 home runs.
- Hit a Houston club-record 29 home runs in the first half of the 2002 season. His 29 homers at the All-Star Break were the most by a switch-hitter since Mickey Mantle in 1961 (also 29 in 1956). He hit 10 homers in his first 20 games in 2002, joining Mantle as the only switch-hitters to hit 10 homers in their club's first 20 games.
- Set the Major League record for the most extra-base hits (94) in a single season by a switch-hitter in 2001 and was the first switch-hitter to record at least 50 doubles and 30 home runs in the same season.

2010 SEASON:

- Split his season with the Astros and Yankees in 2010. Hit .267 (86-for-322) with 13 HR as a left-handed batter and .171 (14-for-82) with one homer from the right side.
- Averaged 6.25 plate apperances per walk, ranking third in the Majors (min. 450 PA).
- Played entirely at first base while with Houston, committing just one error in 769 total chances. Combined he played in 122 games, making 91 starts at first and 21 as DH.
- Opened the season on the 15-day disabled list, recovering from arthroscopic surgery on his left knee performed on 3/13. Made two rehab appearances at Triple-A Round Rock.
- Collected five RBI in the Astros 6/1 win vs. WSH, providing the walk-off two-run single in the bottom of the ninth, his most RBI since 6/10/08 vs. MIL. Also committed his first and only error in that game, snapping a 90-game errorless streak that dated back to his last miscue on 7/7/09 vs. Pittsburgh.
- Homered and tripled in 7/4 loss at San Diego, the fifth time in his career he accomplished the feat. The home run came as a right-handed batter, his only such homer in 2010.
- Acquired by the Yankees on 7/31 after playing 1,592 games for the Astros and made his Yankees debut 7/31 at TB (0-for-4).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 8/19 (retroactive to 8/16) with a sprained right ankle. Suffered the injury in the fifth inning 8/15 at KC when he attempted to beat a throw at first base. Rehabbed at Double-A Trenton in two games (2-for-8).
- Returned from rehab and reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 9/1. Batted .299 (20-for-67) in 25 games following his return from the D.L., hitting safely in 11 of his 17 starts over the remainder of the season.

2010 POSTSEASON – Was 2-4 with a double and HR in Game 2 at MIN as the DH in a 5-2 NY win...was his only appearance in the Division Series...made appearances in four American League Championship games vs. Texas, going 3-12.

INFIELDER

2010 SEASON:

- Earned Opening Day start at third base, the first of his career.
- Played 70 games before a right ankle injury sidelined him for the season on 6/27.
- Despite his shortened season, still ranked 6th among National League rookies with a .296 batting average and 3rd in on base percentage (.361).
- Finished with a .324 BA w/RISP (22-68), ranking fourth among Major League rookies.
- Of his 36 RBI, 20 came in his first plate appearance of the game and he tallied 20 RBI with RISP/2 outs.
- Had at least one RISP at bat in 70% (49/70) of games played and was successful 39% of the time (19/49).
- Named NL Player of the Week (4/26-5/2), hitting his first home run of the season off Jair Jurrjens (4/29 vs. ATL) en route to a 6 RBI game.
- He was the first Cardinals rookie to have a six RBI game since rookie records began in 1957. It was the most by a Cardinal player since Chris Carpenter had six vs. CIN on 10/1/09. He also became the first of six Major League rookies to drive in six runs in a game during the 2010 season.
- Suffered a right ankle sprain on 6/5 vs. MIL and did not make a start again until 6/12.
- Placed on the 15-day disabled list on 6/29 (retroactive to 6/28) with a right ankle bone bruise. Began a rehab assignment on 8/2 but played in just one game at Double-A Springfield, reinjuring his right ankle.
- At the time of injury on 6/28 was second on the team w/ 20 multi-hit games and 2nd in the N.L. with a .364 home batting avg.
- Had surgery to repair a torn peroneal tendon on his right ankle on 8/5 by Dr. Thomas Clanton in Colorado. He later had athroscopic surgery on his left ankle for bone spur removal on 9/8, also performed by Dr. Clanton.

PITCHER

2010 SEASON:

- Had one of the best rookie campaigns of 2010, ranking not only among top rookie pitchers, but top Major League pitchers in several categories. Was named to the Topps, Baseball Digest and Baseball America All-Rookie Teams.
- Finished 3rd in the National League Rookie of the Year award voting (Buster Posey, SF), garnering one first place vote, one second and 16 third place votes. Was the only pitcher in the Top 8 players voted.
- Received one third place vote in the National League Cy Young award voting, finishing 12th in the balloting.
- Ranked 4th in the National League in ERA (2.70), 2nd among all MLB rookies.
- His 2.70 ERA was the lowest by a Cards LH starter since John Tudor recorded a 2.40 ERA in 22 starts (25 gms) during 1990.
- Finished the season with 13 wins, the first STL rookie since Alan Benes (13 in 1996) to win 13 games. Dick Hughes (16-6 in 1967) was the last STL rookie to win more then 13 games.
- Led all rookies with 13 wins & his .619 winning pct. ranked 2nd. Fanned 132 batters (3rd) and his 163.1 innings pitched and 28 starts were 2nd most among National League rookies.
- Ranked 3rd in the N.L. in ground ball/fly ball ratio (2.49) and ground ball percentage (71.4%).
- Threw just 93.2 pitches per start, 4th fewest in the N.L. of qualifying pitchers (1.0 IP/team game).
- His 15 unearned runs allowed were T5th in the N.L. along with teammate C. Carpenter and ARI's R. Lopez.
- Of 28 starts, 19 were quality starts (T24th among N.L. pitchers).
- Led STL pitchers and was 16th in the N.L. as hitters swung and missed on 24.1% of Jaime's pitches thrown.
- Went 6-4 with a 1.74 ERA (2nd in the N.L.) in 14 home starts & was 7-4, 3.82 ERA in 14 road starts.
- Opponents hit .243 against him, ranking 18th in the National League.
- Had a 19.1 scoreless IP streak from 8/17-9/3, spanning parts of four starts. Went 22.1 IP without allowing an earned run (8/10-9/3, spanning 5 starts).
- Had the 3rd lowest ERA through his first 12 starts (1.49) for any rookie left-hander. (Elias)
- His 10 hits were the most by a STL rookie pitcher since Jason Simontacchi had 12 in 2002.
- His start on 4/10 was the first left-handed start for the Cardinals since his start on 7/20/08. With his win on 4/10 at MIL he became the first left-handed starter to win a game for the Cardinals since Mark Mudler did so on 6/15/06, a span of 586 games between wins by a Cardinals LH starter.
- Pitched a CG 9-0 shutout over the Giants on 8/22, giving up three hits, no walks with 6 K's. He needed just 89 pitches, the fewest pitches for a Cardinals CG since B. Tewksbury used 86 vs. the Padres on 5/30/92.
- Allowed only five extra-base hits vs. lefthanded batters (four 2Bs, 1 HR - Ryan Howard).

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009 – Began season on the 15-day D.L. with a torn ligament in his left elbow. - Has thrown out 35.9 percent of runners attempting to steal (142 of 396) since the start of the 2006 season, 2nd among American League catchers during that stretch. His 142 runner's caught stealing leads all M.L. catchers in that time frame.
- Named the American League Rookie of the Month with the Texas Rangers in April of 2004.

2010 SEASON:

- Completed his second season with the Tigers, splitting the club's catching duties with Alex Avila. Made 76 starts behind the plate and appeared in 87 games total.
- Threw out 29.2 percent of runners attempting to steal (24 of 82), third-best among American League catchers.
- Ranked 3rd among A.L. catchers with 52 assists.
- Collected a season-high three hits on 6/15 vs. WSH. Equaled the high with three hits on 6/27 at ATL.
- Batted .333 (8-24) with a double, home run and five RBI over a season-best seven-game hitting streak 8/13-26.
- Entered the game on 9/2 at MIN as a pinch-hitter in the 11th inning and successfully recorded a sacrifice bunt before he belted a game-winning home run in the 13th inning. According to Elias, it marked the first time a player entered the game in extra innings to put down a sacrifice bunt in his first trip to the plate and hit a home run later in the game since 8/14/92 when Milwaukee's Jim Gantner did so vs. Boston.

CATCHER

CAREER:

- Has won three consecutive Rawlings Gold Glove awards from 2008-10, joining Mike Matheny (2000, 03-04) and Tom Pagnozzi (1991, 93-94) as the only Cardinals catchers to win the award three times, and the only catcher to win three consecutive Gold Gloves with the Cardinals.
- Since 2005, leads all Major League catchers with a 41.9 catcher's throwing percentage, ahead of brother Jose Molina (38.1). Also leads all MLB catchers with 439 assists in that same time span (Jason Kendall, 2nd, 386).
- His 36 pick-offs since 2005 leads all catchers with the next closest at 16 (Miguel Olivo).
- Has caught 2314.2 innings and 273 games the last two years, while starting 266 - leading all MLB catchers in each category.
- Is MLB's toughest catcher to fan (once every 12.1 PA's) over past six seasons (min. 2,000 PA's), ranking 5th overall among all Major Leaguers.
- Since 2005, his .298 BA (89-299) with runners in scoring position and two outs, ranks first among National League everyday catchers and 2nd overall, trailing only MIN's Joe Mauer (.373).

2010 SEASON:

- Played in 136 games, batting .262 with 6 HR and a career best 62 RBI. His 122 hits ranked 2nd among NL catchers (McCann, 123).
- Was voted as the starting catcher for the National League All-Star team for the second consecutive season. Went 1-for-1 with a single and caught four innings.
- Missed final 12 games of the season with a sore right knee, but still led all MLB catchers in innings played (1138.0), games started (130) and assists (79).
- Led all NL catchers with 465 at-bats and eight stolen bases.
- Led the NL in RBI with bases loaded (24), batting .533 (8-15), T4th in NL.
- Tied for second in the National League with two grand slams. Hit his first professional grand slam on Opening Day (4/5 at CIN) joining Mark McGwire and Scott Rolen as only Cardinals with a grand slam on Opening Day. Was one of three MLB players with two grand slams on the road in 2010.
- Finished 2nd in MLB to Yorvit Torrealba in catcher's ERA (3.23).
- Led all MLB catchers throwing out 44.4% (28 CS-63 ATT) base stealers, his fourth NL title in that category in seven ML seasons.
- Ranked 4th in the NL in hardest to fan (10.2 SO/AB) striking out just 51 times in 465 AB.
- Had a career high five RBI and career-tying four hits 9/17 vs. SD with two doubles and two singles.
- Ranked first in the Majors with a .455 batting average (10-22) on 0-2 counts
- Batted .315 (63-200) following the All-Star break, 4th among MLB catchers. Hit .223 prior to the break.
- Cardinals were 6-0 in games in which Molina homered, and they have won eight straight games in which he's hit HR.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

2009 – Picked up his second-straight Rawlings Gold Glove Award...was named to the Sporting News N.L. All-Star team, as voted on by players...garnered All-Star honors for the first time, voted as the starting catcher for the N.L...caught 8.0 innings while also delivering an RBI-single...led the majors in games started (136), the most by a Cardinals catcher since Ted Simmons (139) in 1977...caught 1176.2 innings, 2nd-most in MLB trailing only LA's Russell Martin (1201.0)...led the majors with eight pickoffs, uping his career total to 34...the Cardinals were 27-12 in his multi-hit games, including a 7-1 record when he had three or more hits...had a career-high 9 steals, matching STL single-season record for catcher (Marrero-'99, Pagnozzi-'91 & McCarver-'66)...his 9 steals were 2nd among ML catchers to LA's Martin (11)...struck out once every 13.9 PA's - 2nd-lowest in N.L. 2009 POSTSEASON – Hit .308 (4-13) in the three games during the D.S. against LA...started all three games behind the plate.

2008 – Was named to Rawlings Gold Glove team for the first time, the 3rd STL catcher to ever win the award (Matheny, Pagnozzi)... led MLB with seven pick-offs...set career highs in batting avg., runs, RBI, OBP and SLG...his 135 hits were the most by a STL catcher since Ted Simmons had 150 in 1980..was also the first Cards catcher since Simmons in 1980 to post a batting average of .300 or better (min. 450 plate apps.)...his .304 batting average as a ctacher was 4th-best all-time among STL catchers (min. 450 PA's). Is only STL catcher other than Simmons to have a BA over.300 as a catcher and have over 450 plate appearances (Simmons in 1975, '77 and '80)...led team and ranked 6th in the N.L. with a .340 (34-100) batting average with runners in scoring position...his 28 total strikeouts as a catcher were the fewest by a STL backstop (min. 450 PA's) since Ted Simmons fanned just 20 times in 1976. Strikeout total was the second fewest by a MLB backstop since 1993 (A.J. Pierzynski 26K's for SF in 2004) (min. 450 PA's)....made his fourth straight Opening Day start for the Cardinals on 4/1, the last Cardinals catcher to do so was Darrell Porter (5-straight; 1981-85)...opened season with 7-game hitting streak from 4/1-9 (.308, 8-26) - the longest STL hit streak to begin a season since 2003...his HR on 4/1 was 1st by STL catcher on Opening Day since Mike DiFelice in 2002...removed from field on stretcher after home-plate collision in the 9th, 6/15 vs. PHI - held on to the ball after tag to help STL to win...suffered a concussion and missed three games...was DH 6/20 at BOS in his first game since collision and hit solo HR that secured winning margin in 5-4 win...made 1st career start at 1B 6/22 at BOS... matched career high with 4 hits & 4 RBI on 8/22 vs. ATL.

2007 – Caught 23 of 46 (50%) opponents attempting to steal, tops in the majors...had a 59 pt. (.216-.275) gain in BA from 2006, the biggest among N.L. players...missed most of June with a non-displaced fracture in his left wrist...his season ended a week early as he had surgery on his right knee on 9/24...had career-high 15 game hit-streak (.373 BA) from 5/1-24...the streak was the longest by a Cards catcher since 1993 (Erik Pappas: 16-games, 5/14-6/5)...suffered a fracture of his left wrist on 5/29 at COL...came out of the game in the middle of the 4th with the injury which occurred when he took a foul tip off his wrist in the third inning during M. Holliday's at-bat...was activated from the disabled list on 6/28 after missing 26 games...committed the first multi-error game of his career 7/13 at PHI (throwing, catching)...had first career multi-HR game 8/16 at MIL...underwent a medial menisectomy on his right knee on 9/24 by team physician, Dr. George Paletta...signed a 4-year contract extension with club option for 2012 on January 21, 2008.

2006 – Had seven pickoffs on the season and went 26-for-63 (41%) on opponent stolen base attempts for the year...led NL catchers with his 79 assists...picked Brian Giles off first base to end the game on 5/28 at SD...it had been almost four years since a major league game ended with a catcher's pickoff - Ivan Rodriguez (TEX) picked off R. Hidalgo (HOU) on 6/14/02 to secure a 9-6 win for the Rangers. 2006 POSTSEASON – Took part in postseason play for third straight season and led the team with 19 hits, 29 total bases, .358 BA and was second with 8 RBI in his 16 games played...started all 16 games behind the plate and made just one error as Cardinals pitchers combined for a stellar 2.68 ERA...had hits in all but four postseason games...had an RBI single in DS Game 1 at SD...picked off Mike Piazza at first to end Padres 1st inning in DS Game 3...singled in his first AB of the LCS in Game 1... recorded three hits and drove in two runs in LCS Game 2...had two hits in LCS Game 4, including solo HR...was one of several NLCS Game 7 heroes for St. Louis, delivering a 2-run HR in the 9th inning off Aaron Heilman to give Cardinals a 3-1 lead...batted .412 (7-17) in World Series, while hitting safely in all five games...doubled in WS Game 3...drove in a run with a double in Game 4 of the WS and walked twice...had three hits and two runs in Series clinching Game 5 win.

2005 – Shut down opponent's running games, throwing out 17 of 31 runners attempting to steal (55%)...picked off nine runners ...allowed fewest SB's (14) among ML catchers (min. 100 games started)...Twins' Joe Mauer was next closest with 31 allowed...at 22 years of age, became the youngest catcher to start for an N.L. club on Opening Day since Jason Kendall did so for the Pirates (21 in 1996)...his eight home runs were the most by a St. Louis catcher since Mike Matheny had eight in 2003...became just the fifth Cards catcher to homer in three-straight games, doing so vs. PIT 6/24-26, capped by a two-run shot on 6/26...it was the first time since 1994 (T. Pagnozzi) that a Cardinals catcher had three-straight games with a HR...missed 33 games from 7/8-8/17 due to HBP on the left hand on 7/7 at ARI that caused hairline fracture to his 5th metacarpel. 2005 POSTSEASON – Caught the duration of all nine postseason games for the Cardinals, helping St. Louis pitchers to a 3.19 ERA...drove in three runs while batting .286...SD stole two bases in Game 1 of the Division Series before Molina shut down the Padres running game the rest of the series...had two hits and drove in two in Game 3 of the DS vs. SD...collected 2 hits in Games 2, 3 and 5 of the League Championship Series vs. HOU...allowed only one HOU stolen base in the series.

2004 – Rookie catcher made a healthy impression in his first year in the Majors throwing out 50% of would be base thiefs (8-16) in 51 games played (39 starts)...caught 344.0 innings allowing 139 earned runs for a 3.64 catcher's ERA...contract was purchased from Memphis on 6/3 to replace injured Mike Matheny ...made major league debut on 6/3 at PIT and went 2-4, with a double and run scored...in his debut was involved with a play at the plate in the 2nd inning, recording the out when A. Nunez tried to score from second on a single to right and also threw out J. Wilson attempting to steal in the 8th...first ML hit was a single to left off PIT's O. Perez in 5th inninig on 6/3...collected first ML RBI on 6/5 vs. HOU with a single...had first career three-hit game on 6/25 at KC...had first career game-winning RBI with a bases loaded single in the 9th on 8/7 vs. NY...made two terrific putouts at the plate 8/28 at PIT, including a violent collision with Ty Wigginton...belted his first M.L. homer 9/23 at MIL to snap a 2-2 tie. 2004 POSTSEASON – Did not see action in the Cardinals Division Series round, but did start and catch Game 4 of the LCS vs. HOU...was 1-4 in the team's 6-5 loss...appeared in three World Series games vs. BOS, including a start in Game 4...pinch hit in Game 1 (0-1) and caught the 9th inning of Game 3.

2002 - 2003 – Played at Tennessee (AA) in 2003 where he caught 100 games for the Smokies, helping the club to the semifinals of the Southern League...in 2002 was the regular backstop for the Midwest League Champion Peoria Chiefs (A), appearing in 112 games behind the plate...led Midwest League catchers in assists (140) and double plays (9) while posting a .985 fielding pct...also helped the Chiefs' pitching staff to a league-leading 2.78 ERA...threw out a whopping 52 pct. of opposing base-stealers...he fanned just 36 times in 393 at-bats, the 2nd-best ratio in the league.

FIRST BASEMAN

CAREER:

- Finished 2011 with a career batting average of .331 (1,900 hits), a .426 on base percentage and .624 slugging, the active MLB leader in all three categories.
- Enters 2011 as one of just two active players with at least 6,000 plate appearances with a career batting average (.331) above .330 - also Ichiro Suzuki (.331).
- Completed the decade as the N.L.'s triple crown winner, leading in BA (.334), HR's (366) & RBI (1,112). Did so despite playing in only 9 of those 10 seasons after breaking in as a rookie in 2001.
- Is the only player in Major League history to hit 30-or-more home runs in each of his first 10 seasons. The next longest start-of-career streak is four seasons (Mark McGwire, 1987-90).
- Is only the second player in Major League history to have 10-straight 100 RBI seasons to begin his career (Hall of Famer Al Simmons, 11 seasons).
- Season walk total rose every year but one through the 2009 season: from 69 in 2001 to a career high 115 in 2009. Has walked over 100 times the last three seasons & posted more walks than strikeouts in nine consecutive seasons.
- Enters the 2011 season ranked 2nd on the Cardinals all-time home run list with 408 behind Stan Musial's leading total of 475. He and Musial are the only Cardinals to hit over 400 home runs.
- Has 190 career game-winning RBI, tops among all players over the last 10 seasons and 47 more than his closest challenger (Alex Rodriguez, 143)...ranks T16th all-time (Sammy Sosa) since the category began being tracked in 1974. His 312 go-ahead RBI over this time span is tops as well (A. Rodriguez, 284).
- Was the unanimous selection for 2009 National League MVP as voted on by the BBWAA, the sixth N.L. player to win by a unanimous vote and the sixth N.L. player to win in back-to-back seasons.
- The '09 MVP win was his second-straight and third award (also 2008 & 2005) in first nine seasons. Has appeared in the top-10 on the NL MVP ballot in each of his 10 seasons. Pujols and Stan Musial (also three) are the only Cardinals to have won multiple MVP awards.
- Albert Pujols was this past decade's leading MVP vote-getter at 2,640, followed by Barry Bonds (1,998) and Alex Rodriguez (1,665).

PITCHER

CAREER:

- In four seasons as a starter (since 2007), has the 2nd-lowest ERA among Major League pitchers at 2.93 (Halladay 2.91), is 4th most in wins (64) & his .653 win pct. (64-34) is 7th among MLB hurlers.
- Has the Majors 2nd lowest ERA (2.68) to R. Halladay (2.67) since 2008. He is T3rd most wins (50) and his 516 strikeouts rank 20th among MLB pitchers over the past three seasons.
- Since the All-Star break of 2007, his 2.68 ERA over that time is tops in the majors, while his 57 wins are 3rd-most among all pitchers (Halladay & C.C. Sabathia, 64).
- Finished 2nd in the National League Cy Young vote in 2010, behind Roy Halladay.
- Named to the 2010 All-Star team, his first AS game experience. Pitched a perfect 7th and fanned two in the N.L. win.
- Finished third in the National League Cy Young vote after the 2009 season, despite receiving the most first-place votes of any player. His finish was just four points shy of teammate Chris Carpengter for 2nd place and 10 behind Cy Young winner Tim Lincecum (SF Giants) for the second-tightest vote in the history of the award.
- Won a Rawlings Gold Glove award as voted on by N.L. managers and coaches in 2009. He handled an N.L.-best 56 errorless chances.
- Was the Darryl Kile Award recipient in 2008, voted on by his teammates.
- Signed a 4-year contract extension on 3/20/08 that includes two club options that, if exercised, would carry through 2013.

2010 SEASON:

- Finished another strong season, leading the Majors in several catagories while posting his first 20-win season.
- Named to his first All-Star team and threw a scoreless 7th inning while fanning two in the N.L. win.
- His 2.42 ERA ranked 2nd in the National League, the 2nd-straight year he finished with an ERA under 3.00.
- Collected 20 wins for the first time in his career, 2nd only to R. Halladay (21) & had five complete games, also 2nd in the N.L.
- Pitched 230.1 innings, 3rd in the N.L. and his 213 strikeouts ranked 4th. The 213 K's were one more than his previous career high set in 2009 (212) and the most by a Cardinal since C. Carpenter fanned the same number in 2005.
- Set a career low with opponents hitting just .224, 7th among N.L. hurlers. Was also T7th as opponents batted just .200 with runners in scoring position.
- Had two shutouts, 6/4 vs. MIL and 8/6 at FLA, matching several Major League pitchers for 2nd most.
- Recorded 25 quality starts T1st among N.L. pitchers, beginning the season with seven-straight QS.
- Had a Major League record 28 consecutive quality starts at home that was snapped on 9/4 vs. CIN (five runs (2 ER) in 5.0 IP).
- Had a 26.0 scoreless innings streak from 7/4-27 and a 25.0 inning scoreless streak from 8/1-18. The streaks were 5th and T7th longest in the N.L., respectively.
- Went 19-0 when receiving four or more runs of support.
- Was 12-3 with a 1.78 ERA (3rd in N.L.) when pitching at Busch (16 starts). He didn't lose a home start until 8/18 vs. MIL and tied for Majors lead in home wins. Was 8-8 in 17 road starts with a 3.08 ERA (9th).
- His 1.89 day ERA was the lowest among N.L. pitchers, and had an 11-3 record in 15 daytime starts.

- His 8-0 April winning streak in 12 starts dating to '08 was snapped on 4/24 at SF. It was the longest April winning streak among active pitchers (Elias).
- Threw his first career complete-game shutout 6/4 vs. MIL in an 8-0 win, retiring the last 18 batters.
- Earned his 20th win in his last start, 9/24 at CHI. He became the 4th Cardinals pitcher to record 20 wins under Dave Duncan's watch, joining Chris Carpenter, Matt Morris and Darryl Kile.
- Pinch hit three times in 2010 (0-3). Did not hit a HR for the first time during a full Major League season.

SCOUTING DEPARTMENT

The scouting department has employees devoted to searching for baseball talent in four unique areas, including professional, college, high school and international. Professional Scouts analyze major and minor league players from other organizations and compile reports for potential trades and signings. Area Scouts live and work within an assigned geographic area of the United States and scout the amatuer ranks for talent. Each area scout is assigned a collegiate conference within their region to analyze and report. Crosscheckers verify top talent from coast to coast.

Maloney is in his fifth season as Memphis skipper. He served two seasons as Springfield (AA) manager from 2005-06 prior to his promotion to Memphis. He returned to the Cardinals organization in 2005 after having spent three years in the Astros organization as manager of the Triple-A New Orleans Zephyrs. Maloney posted a 212-220 record with the Zephyrs, including a first place finish in 2002.

Maloney guided the 2010 Redbirds to the Pacific Coast Championship Series for the second straight season. The club entered the series on a nine-game PCL playoffs win streak dating back to 2009. His 2009 club won the PCL Championship by sweeping Albuquerque and Sacramento in six straight games. In 2010 Memphis had two Organizational Players of the Month and two Pitchers of the Month, they also boasted three PCL Pitchers of the Week as well as three PCL All-Stars.

Maloney's previous tenure with the Cardinals included Manager of the Year honors in three different leagues: the New York-Penn League while leading Hamilton to a 56-20 (.737) record in 1992, the highest winning percentage of any winning percentage by a Cardinals minor league team; the South Atlantic League with Savannah in 1993, and the Texas League with Arkansas in 1998. His 1993 Savannah squad posted a 94-48 record and captured the league title as Maloney was named Baseball Weekly's Minor League Manager of the Year. In his 16 seasons as a manager in the Cardinals system, Maloney has compiled a 939-804 (.539) record.

His work with young Cardinals players was formally recognized when he was presented with the 2006 and 2009 George Kissell Awards, presented annually for excellence in player development. The 2009 award made Maloney the first two-time winner.

Maloney, 50, is a native of Jackson, Miss. He graduated from Mississippi State University in 1983 and was later signed as a non-drafted free agent by the New York Mets. The former outfielder-first baseman was purchased by the Cardinals in 1986 and played one minor league season at Springfield, Ill. He and wife Laurie have a daughter, Ann Bradley, and son, Jake.

MARK BUDASKA — HITTING COACH

Mark begins his fourth season as Memphis hitting coach after serving in the same capacity from 2004-07 at Triple-A Pawtucket in the Boston Red Sox system. He had been in the Red Sox organization since 2002, when he was hitting coach at Double-A Portland of the Eastern League

In 2001, he coached for the Angels' Double-A Little Rock affiliate in the Texas League. The Travelers won the Texas League Championship that year and ranked fourth in the league with a .266 team average.

Budaska was a hitting coach and first base coach for a major league team in Taiwan from 1998-2000.

The former switch-hitting outfielder played 10 years in the Oakland organization, including stints at the big league level in 1978 and 1981.

BLAISE ILSLEY — PITCHING COACH

Ilsley enters his fourth season as the pitching coach at Memphis. He was promoted to the Triple-A club on January 17, 2008 after working six seasons as the pitching coach at the Cardinals Double-A affiliate. Ilsleys staff recorded the lowest ERA in the Pacific Coast League his first two seasons with the club. In 2008, the Redbirds had a 4.34 and it lowered to 4.05 in 2009 as Memphis finished 77-67 en route to the PCL playoffs and eventually the league championship. In 2010 the staff finished with an ERA of 4.42, sixth in the PCL.

In the 2010 PCL playoffs, the staff ranked first in strikeouts (69) as they averaged 11.5 a game. During the regular season, Memphis ranked first in wins and saves, while finishing fourth in strikeouts. Ilsley was honored by the Cardinals following the 2004 season with the George Kissell Award, presented annually by the Cardinals for excellence in player development. He had joined the Cardinals from the Baltimore Orioles' organization after serving as the pitching coach for Bluefield in the Appalachian League (R) during the 2001 campaign. Ilsley began his coaching career in 1999 with Winnipeg of the Independent Northern League and moved on to coach at Sioux Falls in 2000. He spent 14 seasons playing in the minor leagues with Houston, St. Louis, Chicago Cubs, Philadelphia, Cleveland and Montreal. He concluded his playing career in 1998. He appeared in 10 games in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs in 1994, making his Major League debut on April 4 of that year. A fourth round pick of the Houston Astros in 1985, Ilsley was named to the Topps Rookie League All-Star team that year after leading the New York-Penn League with 116 strikeouts in 90 innings for Class-A Auburn. He combined to win 20 games at two minor league stops in 1986. He is a 1982 graduate of Alpena High School (Mich.) and attended Indiana State University.

Ilsely, 47, resides in Sarasota, Fla., with his wife, Jo Anne.

RON "POP" WARNER — MANAGER

Warner is entering his fifth season as Springfield manager. He was promoted to Springfield on November 20, 2006 after managing the Palm Beach Cardinals for two seasons. He has led his teams to the postseason in five of the last six seasons, narrowly missing in 2008 despite having the North Division's best overall record (76-64). In his first season at Springfield in 2007, he guided the club to the Texas League championship series. His Palm Beach squad won the 2005 Florida State League Championship. His 2010 team produced 11 Texas League All-Stars, nine Players/Pitchers of the Week and the organization's Minor League Player of the Year.

He is in his 11th season as a coach in the Cardinals farm system and his sixth campaign as a manager. Overall, he owns a 440-391 (.529) record as a bench boss. In 2004, he served as the hitting coach at Peoria (A) and guided the Midwest League's top hitting club (.277 team batting average). The previous two years (2002-2003), Warner was a coach at Class-A New Jersey. He made his coaching debut in 2001 at Double-A New Haven.

In 2000, Warner served as the batting practice pitcher for the Major League club. He was originally drafted by the Cardinals in the 17th round in 1991 as a shortstop out of the University of Wyoming and spent nine years playing in the Redbirds farm system. In 1999, he hit .290 with 11 home runs and 33 RBI for Memphis while playing several positions.

Warner, 42, resides in St. Charles, Mo., with his wife, Laura, and sons, Colin Michael (1/9/04) and Benjamin Anthony (1/25/10).

PHILLIP WELLMAN — HITTING COACH

Wellman begins his first season as a Cardinals minor league coach after spending the previous seven seasons in the Atlanta Braves system, the last four as manager of the Mississippi Braves (AA). Wellman brings to the Cardinals a total 23 years of coaching experience with a combined 15 years as a skipper at various levels in the minors.

Wellman led the MS Braves to the Southern League Championship in 2008 and was named SL Manager of the Year in his second season at the helm. Prior to managing the Braves, Wellman spent the previous three seasons in various capacities in the club's minor league system.

Before joining the Braves, Wellman spent eight years (1996- 2003) in the Cincinnati Reds minor league system, four of those as manager of Chattanooga (AA).

Wellman began his coaching career in 1988 as a hitting instructor for the Pulaski Braves. He worked in the Braves minor leagues until 1991 before earning his first managerial job with the Gulf Coast League Orioles in 1992. Wellman spent parts of four seasons (1984-87) as a player in the Atlanta, Minnesota and Pittsburgh organizations. He attended Sam Houston University and graduated from Southwestern University at Georgetown (Texas) in 1985.

BRYAN EVERSGERD — PITCHING COACH

Eversgerd returns to Springfield after spending the 2010 campaign with Palm Beach. This is his second stint with Springfield as he spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons with the club. He was pitching coach at the Cardinals Midwest League Low-A affiliate from 2004-07 prior to joining Springfield's staff. In 2004, he served at Single-A Peoria after being out of baseball for two years. His inaugural coaching season was in 2001 for the Cardinals as pitching coach at their Single-A Potomac affiliate.

He began his Major League baseball career with the Cardinals, signing as a non-drafted free agent on June 14, 1989. He pitched a scoreless inning of relief in his Major League debut for the Cardinals on April 26, 1994, and picked up his first big-league win in his only Major League start on May 20, 1994, at Florida. The left-hander also pitched at the Major League level for Montreal and Texas before returning to St. Louis from 1998 to 2000.

Eversgerd, 42, graduated from Carlyle (Ill.) High School in 1987 and played baseball at Kaskaskia Community College, leading the team to the 1989 sectional championship. He resides in Hoffman, Ill., with his wife, Lisa, and daughter, Kristen (13) and son, Jacob (11).

LUIS AGUAYO — MANAGER

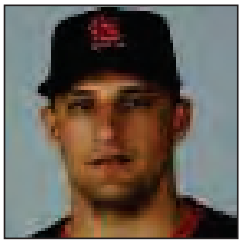
Aguayo returns for his second season as manager of the Palm Beach Cardinals. From 2007- 2009 Aguayo was a member of the New York Mets organization as the minor league Field Coordinator and four months as the third base coach for the Major League club.

His 2010 squad produced eight Florida State League All-Stars, and one Organizational Player and Pitcher of the Month.

This is Aguayo's seventh year as a manager, all in the minor leagues, mostly split between the Reds and Red Sox organization. He has a career managerial record of 244-271 (.474).

From 2004-06 Aguayo managed in the Reds organization, leading the 2004 Billings (A) affiliate to the Pioneer League championship, where the club lost in the finals to Provo. The following two seasons, Aguayo was manager of the Gulf Coast League Reds affiliate.

Aguayo spent 11 seasons in the Red Sox organization as a coach with the Triple-A affiliate in Pawtucket (1993-95), manager of the Gulf Coast League Red Sox (1997-98), manager of short-season Lowell (1999) and the last four years as the Minor League Infield Coordinator. Aguayo, 52, resides in Veja Baja, Puerto Rico.



JEFF ALBERT — HITTING COACH

Jeff Albert joined the Cardinals as hitting coach at Batavia in 2008 and earned a promotion to Palm Beach in 2009. In his first season with the Cardinals, he helped guide Batavia to a championship as the MuckDogs were shut out just once on the season.

Albert played collegiate baseball at the Division III and Division II levels, with a couple of stops among independent professional teams. He began working on instruction and strength and conditioning with high school, college and professional players shortly thereafter and is owner and operator of swingtraining.net, which is a site dedicated to baseball training and analysis.

Following the 2008 season, Jeff traveled to Vienna, Austria, to speak at the European Baseball Coaches Association/Austrian Baseball Federation Clinic conducted by the International Sports Group.

Jeff recently completed graduate work in Exercise Science at Louisiana Tech University. There, he was involved in various baseball training research studies as well as strength and conditioning with Tech baseball and softball teams. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

DENNIS MARTINEZ — PITCHING COACH

Martinez returns to Palm Beach after spending the 2010 season with Springfield. He spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons in the same capacity at Palm Beach. Martinez is in his fifth year with the Cardinals organization, he served in the same capacity for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2007. Martinez totes a 23-year career as a pitcher from 1976-1998 for Baltimore, Montreal, Cleveland, Seattle and Atlanta.

Nicknamed "El Presidente," Martinez totaled 245 career wins, still tops among Latino pitchers. He appeared in four All-Star games while posting a 3.70 ERA in 692 career games. On July 28, 1991 while pitching for Montreal at Dodger Stadium, Martinez tossed baseball's 13th perfect game, a 2-0 win.

Martinez, 56, was a special assistant in the Orioles organization before joining the Cardinals.

An icon in his native country of Nicaragua, Martinez has met with President Daniel Oretga and is involved with developing baseball in the Latin American country. In 1998 Nicaragua renamed a 30,100 seat baseball stadium in Managua in his honor (Dennis Martinez National Stadium). Martinez now resides in Miami.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ — MANAGER

Rodriguez enters his second season as a manager in the Cardinals organization after spending the 2009 season as the hitting coach in Johnson City. He guided his 2010 Quad Cities squad to the top record in the Midwest League and produced four all-stars and two Organizational Pitchers of the Month as well as two Players of the Month.

Prior to joining the Cardinals, Rodriguez worked with the Florida Marlins organization, where he was hitting coach at Jamestown in 2007-08. He had been with the Marlins since 2002, when he began as a manager at Jamestown.

Rodriguez served as a hitting coach in the Expos organization in 2000-01. Prior to joining the Expos, he spent 17 seasons as a coach in the New York Yankees system, at the University of Miami, Miami-Dade Community College and at the nationally prominant high school baseball program at Westminster Christian High School (FL).

Rodriguez, 54, also has scouting experience with Houston, Los Angeles Angels, New York Mets and Milwaukee organizations.

In October of 2002, he led an amateur team filled with draft-eligible prospects to the championship of the Perfect Game/Baseball America World Wood Bat tournament held in Jupiter, Fla.

Has a son, Sean, who is a middle infielder in the Tampa Bay Rays system. Sean made his Major League debut on April 18, 2008 versus Seattle for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim. Rodriguez resides in Miami, Fla.

JOE KRUZEL — HITTING COACH

Joe Kruzel begins his fourth year as Quad Cities hitting coach and is in his sixth season as a coach at the minor league level.

In 2010 Quad Cities batters finished second in the Midwest League in runs, runs batted in and third in the league in homers.

Kruzel came to the Cardinals after spending the 2006 and 2007 seasons in the Cincinnati Reds organization. In 2007, he was manager at rookie-level Billings of the Pioneer League. In 2006, Kruzel was the hitting coach for the Gulf Coast League Reds.

Prior to his time with the Reds, the veteran college coach served as the assistant baseball coach at Miami (OH) University in 2005. He spent 15 seasons (1989-2003) at the University of Toledo, where he served as the assistant baseball coach (1989-92) and then head baseball coach (1993-2003). In addition to his coaching career, Kruzel played second base at Toledo from 1985-1988.

Kruzel, 45, resides in Hamilton, Ohio.

TIM LEVEQUE — PITCHING COACH

Leveque begins his fourth season as pitching coach in the Cardinals organization and second at Quad Cities. He spent the 2008 season at Johnson City before earning a promotion to Batavia in 2009.

Leveque's 2010 staff led the Midwest League in strikeouts as they amassed 1220 on the season.

Leveque was hired by the Cardinals in March of 2006 as a pitching specialist who coordinated and studied video of draft-eligible pitchers. He will continue these tasks prior to the start of the each season.

Leveque attended and played baseball at Crespi High School in Encino, Calif., the same school that produced former Cardinals pitcher Jeff Suppan. He was drafted out of high school by the Detroit Tigers but did not sign, instead choosing to attend and play college baseball at the University of Michigan.

Born and raised in Los Angeles, Leveque is single and currently resides in Northridge, Calif.

DANN BILARDELLO — MANAGER

Bilardello returns as the manager of Batavia after his 2010 squad won the Pickney Division crown in his first season at the helm. Bilardello is in his fifth year with the Cardinals organization as he worked as the minor league catching coordinator from 2007- 2009.

The former Major League catcher has four years of minor league managing experience in the Boston Red Sox and Los Angeles Dodgers organizations.

Bilardello coached the Wilmington Blue Rocks in the Carolina League during the 2005 season and spent three years managing for the Dodgers in Great Falls of the Pioneer League in 2002 and the following two years with Columbus in the South Atlantic League. He led Great Falls to a Pioneer League Championship in 2002 with a record of 47-28 and 4-1 in the playoffs.

Bilardello played all or part of eight Major League seasons as a catcher with Cincinnati (1983-85), Montreal (1986), Pittsburgh (1989-90) and San Diego (1991-92). He signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers after being chosen in the first round of the secondary phase of the 1978 June amateur draft. He played a career-high 109 games during his rookie season with the Reds, posting career bests in home runs (8) and RBI (38). He hit his first home run off Tom Seaver.

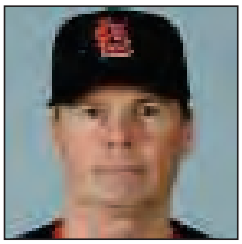
Bilardello, 51, resides in Vero Beach, Fla., and has three children (two sons, Davis and Trey, and a daughter Kammie). Davis was a left-handed pitcher drafted by the Cardinals in the 43rd round of the 2007 draft and played as high as the Palm Beach High-A level. Trey is a professional golf caddie on the Nationwide Tour. Kammie was a two-sport athlete at Webber International University, playing tennis for four years and played volleyball for three years.

ROGER LaFRANCOIS — HITTING COACH

LaFrancois returns for his second season with the Muckdogs and he has over 20 years of coaching experience at the minor league level. In 2010 Batavia finished first in runs scored, runs batted in, and on-base percentage and they were second in the league in team batting average and hits.

LaFrancois has coached or managed at all levels of the minor leagues with several different Major League organizations including the Chicago White Sox, San Francisco Giants, New York Mets, Montreal Expos and Atlanta Braves. Most recently he was a coach with the Worcester Tornadoes of the Can American League (2008-2009). A catcher in the Boston Red Sox organization, he spent eight years with the Sox, and saw action in the Major Leagues during the 1982 season.

La Francois is founder and director of the CT Dugout Club. He has also been a partner and director of the World Baseball Coaches Convention since 2003 and America's Game since 2001, in which coaches and athletes are instructed in the game of baseball. He resides in Old Saybrook, Conn.



ARTHUR "ACE" ADAMS — PITCHING COACH

Ace Adams will enter his fourth season as a pitching coach in the Cardinals organization and second in Batavia. He spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons serving as the pitching coach at Quad Cities.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, he was a pitching coach in the Boston Red Sox system, with his last assignment for the Eastern League champion Portland Sea Dogs in 2006. He spent 2005 as the Wilmington Blue Rocks pitching coach and held the same role for the Augusta Greenjackets in 2004.

Adams coached the Florida Marlins Single-A Jupiter affiliate in 2002, when his pitching staff helped lead the team to an 81-57 record while compiling an overall 3.41 ERA. He also coached the Expos Florida State League entry in Jupiter from 1999-2001 and was the pitching coach for the Expos' short-season Vermont club in 1998.

Adams entered the professional coaching ranks in 1997 with the Montreal Expos organization after 13 years as a college coach at the University of Michigan (1989-96), Brandeis (1986-89), Harvard (1985) and Dartmouth (1984). The Wellesley, Mass., native was a traveling batting practice pitcher for the Red Sox from 1984-85.

Ace and his wife Wendy reside in Longmeadow, Mass. with their daughter Abigail.

MIKE SHILDT — MANAGER

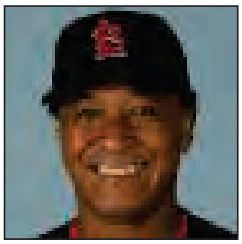
Mike Shildt enters his third season as manager in Johnson City after serving as hitting coach for the Appalachian League entry in 2008. He also will act as minor league spring training coordinator for the fourth consecutive season.

Shildt led his 2010 Johnson City squad to their first Appalachian League championship since 1976. He tied Steve Turco's team record of 42 wins in a short-season, a year after leading the team to their best record (37-30) in 13 years in 2009.

In 2007, Shildt was the position coach at Batavia. He served as an area scout for four seasons from 2004-07 prior to fulfilling player development duties toward the end of each of those seasons. Officially, this is his sixth season as a member of the field staff within the Cardinals organization, with consulting and instructional duties for the New Jersey Cardinals in 2004 and 2005.

Prior to joining the Cardinals organization, Shildt worked three years as an associate scout for the Major League Scouting Bureau. Shildt has five years of collegiate coaching under his belt split between stops at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and University of North Carolina at Asheville. He also owned & operated On Deck, Baseball Academy in Pineville, N.C., training many major and minor league players for four years.

Shildt, 42, is a 1991 graduate of UNC-Asheville with a degree in business and currently resides in Matthews, N.C. He was a three-year letterwinner on the Bulldogs baseball team and grew up working for the Orioles AA team in Charlotte with Cal Ripken, Jr. and Eddie Murray, performing clubhouse detail and working the scoreboard.



RAMON ORTIZ — HITTING COACH

Ortiz enters his second season at Johnson City and fourth with the Cardinals organization after returning in 2008 for the first time since 1995. He spent the 2008 season as the hitting coach of the GCL Cards and in 2009 he served in the same capacity at Batavia.

In 2010 the Johnson City club led the Appy League in almost every major statistical category including average, runs, runs batted in, doubles, on-base percentage, slugging percentage and on-base plus slugging.

He was in the Dodgers organization from 2005-07, last serving as hitting coach for the GCL Dodgers in 2007. In 2006, he was with the Vero Beach Dodgers.

Ortiz spent six seasons from 1999-2004 as a coach in the Tampa Bay Devil Rays' organization. From 1999-2002, he coached with the Devil Rays' Single-A Hudson Valley club, followed by a two-year stint at Single-A Bakersfield (2003-04).

The Venezuela native started his coaching career at the University of Central Venezuela (1983-85). He then spent nine seasons (1987-95) as a coach in the Cardinals' system, followed by a three-season coaching stint (1996-98) in the New York Yankees' organization. Ortiz, an outfielder, played five seasons of professional baseball in the Montreal Expos and Minnesota Twins systems.

DOUG WHITE — PITCHING COACH

Doug White is in his fourth season as a Cardinals minor league pitching coach and third at Johnson City. In 2008, he was pitching coach for the New York-Penn League champion Batavia MuckDogs.

White has extensive experience as a pitching instructor and has founded and run "Passion for Pitching" clinics in Southern California. He recently served as a pitching instructor for a Major League Baseball International sponsored clinic in Peru. He was the pitching coach for manager Jack Clark at Mid-Missouri of the Independent Frontier League in 2004. Doug also was the extended spring training and Gulf Coast League pitching coach for the Montreal Expos in 2003.

White is a 2002 graduate of Arizona State University in Broadcast Journalism and is a certified personal trainer. He made an appearance on the ABC reality TV show "Dating in the Dark" during the summer of 2009.

STEVE TURCO — MANAGER

Turco enters his third season as manager of the Gulf Coast League club following a 2010 campaign in which he led the rookie Redbirds to their best record in the team's four year history.

He returned to managing in 2009 after spending nine seasons as a Cardinals scout. His previous managerial stops in the St. Louis chain for eight seasons (1992-99) included Johnson City for six seasons from 1994-99 and New Jersey from 1992-93.

In 1996, he led Johnson City to a 42-26 record and in 1994 he guided them to an Appalachian League playoff berth. He is 320-342 in 10 seasons as a manager.

The 54-year-old also has three years' coaching experience in the Cardinals system, starting as a coach at Springfield in 1985 before moving to Savannah in 1986. After a four-year stint as a high school baseball coach, he returned to the professional level in 1991 to coach at Hamilton.

Turco was signed by the Cardinals in 1978 as an infielder and played in the farm system from 1979-1984.

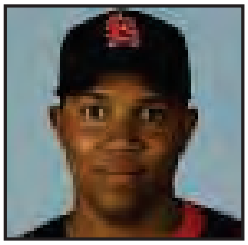
Turco graduated from Cooper City High School in Florida in 1975. He earned a physical education degree from Florida State University in 1979. He resides in Clearwater, Fla.

OLIVER MARMOL — HITTING COACH

This will be Marmol's first season as a coach in the Cardinals system after being drafted by the Cardinals in the sixth round of the 2007 MLB June Amatuer Draft and spending the last four seasons playing in the minor league system.

Marmol was originally drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in 2004 out of Dr. Phillips High School in Orlando, Florida, but decided to attend the University of Charleston (South Carolina) where he batted .327 over three seasons with the Cougars.

In his first season in the Cardinals organization (2007), Marmol played 33 games at Batavia and 31 at Quad Cities where he scored a combined 32 runs and registered a total 17 RBI and 11 stolen bases, while drawing a combined 23 walks. The next season he spent time at both Quad Cities and Palm Beach and played the last two seasons (2009-10) at Palm Beach.



DERNIER OROZCO — PITCHING COACH

Orozco begins his sixth season as a pitching coach in the Cardinals system and returns to the Gulf Coast League club after spending 2010 season as the pitching coach for the Venezuelan Summer League entry.

Orozco spent four years coaching in the Venezuelan League from 2006- 2008 and again last seson. He was pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Cardinals in 2009.

The 29-year-old played six professional seasons in the Boston Red Sox organization as a right-handed pitcher. He went 4-2 with a 6.09 ERA, and totaled four walks and 21 strikeouts, in 14 games (29.2 IP) for the Gulf Coast League Red Sox in 2003, his final season. He posted a 1.88 ERA in 14 Venezuelan Summer League outings (three starts) one year prior.

In 2004, he was the first base coach for the Tigres De Aragua baseball club in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Administrator: Aaron Rodriguez
Coach: Selin Aquino

FRAY PENICHE — MANAGER

Peniche begins his first year in the Cardinals organization after spending the past 12 seasons coaching in the Detroit Tigers organization, the last four as manager of the DSL Tigers.

He began his coaching career with the Oneonta Tigers (A) in 1999 and spent the 2000-2006 seasons as a coach with the DSL squad. He was promoted to manager of the DSL Tigers in 2007 and led the team to a 45-20 record and a second place finish in their division.

Peniche has spent his entire career up to this season in the Tigers organization as he was a non-drafted free agent with the Tigers and played four seasons in their minor league system. He played three seasons (1995-97) with the Gulf Coast League Tigers (R) and spent one season (1998) in the New York-Penn League with the Jamestown Jammers.

JOBEL JIMENEZ — HITTING COACH

Jimenez was hired by the Cardinals prior to the start of the 2007 Venezuelan Summer League and this marks his fourth season as hitting coach with the Cardinals organization. He served as hitting coach for the VSL Cardinals from 2007-2009. Prior to joining the Cardinals, he worked for five years (2001-06) for the Boston Red Sox as a scout/outfield instructor and hitting coach in Venezuela and the Dominican Republic.

Jimenez, 33, also worked as a Venezuelan scout and outfield instructor for the Florida Marlins from 1999-2000.

A minor league outfielder for two seasons (1993-94) in the Los Angeles Dodgers system, Jimenez moved to the scouting and coaching ranks and spent four seasons as an outfield instructor and VSL scout for the Dodgers from 1994-98.

BILL VILLANUEVA — PITCHING COACH

Villanueva is entering his fourth year as a pitching coach for the Dominican Summer League Cardinals after joining the St. Louis Cardinals organization as pitching coach for the DSL entry in the summer of 2005. After serving as an assistant pitching instructor at the Cardinals Jupiter, Fla. complex in 2008, he returned to coaching in 2009.

A former right-handed pitcher, he signed with Florida in 1995 and pitched six seasons in the Marlins minor league system. His final stop was in 2000 at Single-A Kane County of the Midwest League, where he went 1-6 with a 3.76 ERA. Overall, Villanueva was 14-28 with a 3.95 ERA in 77 career minor league games (61 starts).

Villanueva also played for the Tigres de Licey from 1998-2001 in the Caribbean Baseball Series.

THE DARRYL KILE AWARD

At its annual dinner in January of 2003, the St. Louis Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America announced the creation of the Darryl Kile Award. It is given annually to the Cardinal player, by vote of his teammates, who demonstrates the qualities that Darryl brought to the clubhouse every day: those of a good teammate, a great friend, a fine father, and a humble man. A veteran of 331 big league starts, Darryl was never on the disabled list at the Major League level and prided himself on never missing a start. The award was not given in 2002 in honor of Darryl.

CARDINALS RETIRED NUMBERS

In the 119-year history of the St. Louis Cardinals, 13 individuals have enjoyed such distinguished careers on the field, in the dugout, or from the owners box or broadcast booth that their uniform numbers have been retired by the organization. Only the New York Yankees (14) have recognized more individuals with retired numbers. The honored Redbirds' jersey numbers appear in two areas; encircled in a series below the main scoreboard and above the Coca Cola Scoreboard Patio in right-center field and on the left-field wall at the new Busch Stadium.

Along with the 13 Cardinals retired numbers is that of Hall of Famer Jackie Robinson, whose uniform No. 42 was retired throughout Major League Baseball in 1997 to commemorate the 50th anniversary of his breaking the big-league color barrier. Robinson played for the Brooklyn Dodgers from 1947 to 1956. He was the National League Rookie of the Year in 1947, the Most Valuable Player in 1949 and a five-time All-Star. Robinson was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1962.

The most recent honory was Hall of Fame manager Whitey Herzog, who returned to Busch Stadium for the ceremony in front of a sell out crowd honoring him and the 1985 Cardinals versus the Pittsburgh Pirates on July 31, 2010.

OZZIE SMITH
SHORTSTOP

1

FULL NAME: Osborne Earl Smith
HEIGHT: 5-10 WEIGHT: 180 BATS: Both THROWS: Right
BORN: 12/26/54 at Mobile, Alabama.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1982-96.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

Ozzie Smith is widely regarded as the finest fielding shortstop of all time. But after being labeled as a good-field, no-hit performer early in his career, he developed into a bona fide offensive threat, as well.

The Cardinals acquired Smith from the San Diego Padres in exchange for shortstop Garry Templeton on Feb. 11, 1982. It proved to be one of the greatest trades in franchise history. Smith was a key element in St. Louis' success of the 1980s, and became one of the city's most popular citizens.

A lifetime .231 batter when he arrived in St. Louis, Smith promptly hit .248 for the 1982 season as the Cardinals won the World Series over the Milwaukee Brewers. In 1985, Smith batted at a .276 clip with a career high of six home runs and 54 RBI. He subsequently stunned the baseball world with a game-winning homer in the bottom of the ninth inning of Game 5 of the National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers. The blast - on a 1-2 pitch from reliever Tom Niedenfuer - was Smith's first as a left-handed batter in 3,009 at-bats and prompted Cardinals' broadcaster Jack Buck to exclaim, "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy!" Smith put together his finest season at the plate in 1987, with career highs of a .303 average and 75 RBI, as the Cardinals captured their third N.L. pennant in six seasons. He finished as runner-up for the Most Valuable Player Award to Andre Dawson of the Chicago Cubs.

Throughout his offensive progression, Smith seemingly made every play defensively, both the routine and the spectacular. "The Wizard" won 13 consecutive Gold Gloves between 1980 and 1992, setting a major league record with an all-time low of eight errors in 1991. Smith's most eye-popping play came Aug. 4, 1986, against the Philadelphia Phillies at Busch Stadium. He took off on a short fly ball to left field hit by Von Hayes and, with his back to the plate, flew parallel to the ground and completely stretched out to make the catch. Upon his retirement, Smith was baseball's career leader in assists (8,375), chances accepted (12,624) and double plays (1,590) by a shortstop. He led the N.L. in fielding percentage eight times and had a career .978 mark, fifth in baseball annals at the end of his career.

Smith was selected to 15 All-Star Games, and when he retired following the 1996 season, he had received more votes in fan balloting for the Mid-Summer Classic than any other player in N.L. history (27,597,904). Upon retirement, Smith ranked second among Cardinals in walks (876); third in games (1,990), at-bats (7,160) and stolen bases (433); sixth in runs (991) and hits (1,944); and ninth in doubles (338).

Smith was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2002, his first year on the ballot, receiving nearly 92 percent of the votes from the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Fans voted Smith shortstop on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on October 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

In 2007, Smith was named the shortstop on the All-Time Rawlings Gold Glove Team, created to honor the Rawlings Gold Glove Award's 50th anniversary.

RED SCHOENDIENST

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

2

FULL NAME: Albert Fred (Red) Schoendienst

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Both THROWS: Right

BORN: 2/2/23 at Germantown, Illinois.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1945-56, 1961-76, 1979-95.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

The name Albert "Red" Schoendienst is synonymous with Cardinals' baseball. After all, he wore the uniform for some 45 seasons as a player, coach and manager and still is involved with the organization as special assistant to the general manager.

It all started in 1945, when Schoendienst joined the club three years after signing out of nearby Germantown, Ill. Schoendienst batted .278 with 47 RBI and a National League-leading 26 stolen bases. Originally an outfielder, Schoendienst moved to third base and then shortstop before settling in at second base the following year. St. Louis won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox as Schoendienst began to develop into one of the best hitting and fielding second basemen of all time.

In 1953, Schoendienst put together his finest season. He established career highs of a .342 batting average - second in the league to Carl Furrillo of the Brooklyn Dodgers at .344 - with 15 home runs and 79 RBI. On June 14, 1956, Schoendienst was involved in a surprising trade when he was sent to the New York Giants along with outfielder Jackie Brandt, pitcher Dick Littlefield, catcher Bill Sarni and shortstop Bobby Stephenson in exchange for shortstop Alvin Dark, catcher Ray Katt, pitcher Don Liddle and outfielder Whitey Lockman.

The following year, Schoendienst was traded to the Milwaukee Braves, who won the 1957 World Series and the 1958 N.L. pennant. He subsequently returned to St. Louis in 1961. When his number was retired, Schoendienst ranked fourth in at-bats (6,841) and pinch hits (53); fifth in games (1,795), runs (1,025) and hits (1,980); sixth in doubles (352); and seventh in total bases (2,657) on the Cardinals' career lists. He led the N.L. with 200 hits in 1957, and seven times either led or tied for the N.L. lead in fielding percentage.

Schoendienst served as a coach on the 1964 World Championship team and was named manager when Johnny Keane resigned at the conclusion of the season. Schoendienst piloted St. Louis to a World Series victory in 1967 over the Red Sox and another N.L. pennant in 1968 en route to a 12-year tenure as skipper, now the second-longest in franchise history behind Tony La Russa.

A 10-time N.L. All-Star, Schoendienst socked a game-winning home run in the 14th inning of the 1950 Mid-Summer Classic off Ted Gray of the Detroit Tigers. It marked the switch-hitter's first career homer batting right-handed. Schoendienst later managed the Senior Circuit to victories in 1968 and 1969. After a stint as coach with the Oakland Athletics in 1977 and 1978, Schoendienst came back to St. Louis as a coach from 1979 to 1995. He filled in as interim manager in 1980 and 1990. Schoendienst was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1989 by the Veterans Committee.

6

FULL NAME: Stanley Frank Musial

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175 BATS: Left THROWS: Left

BORN: 11/21/20 at Donora, Pennsylvania.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1941-44, 1946-63.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1963.

Simply stated, Stan Musial is "The Man." Not only is he the greatest player in Cardinals' history, he also is the most popular.

Musial played his entire 22-year career as an outfielder and first baseman in St. Louis. He is the franchise's career leader in virtually every batting category: games (3,026), at-bats (10,972), runs (1,949), hits (3,630), doubles (725), triples (177), home runs (475), RBI (1,951), walks (1,599) and total bases (6,134). His .331 average is fifth behind Rogers Hornsby (.359), Johnny Mize (.336) Joe Medwick (.335) and Albert Pujols (.331). And, despite being an everyday player most of his career, Musial ranks seventh with 35 pinch-hits.

After initially joining the Cardinals late in 1941, Musial arrived for good the following season. He immediately began a stretch of 16 straight years in which he batted .300 or better. In 1943, Musial led the National League with a .357 average, 220 hits, 48 doubles and 20 triples and earned the first of his three Most Valuable Player awards. Musial also was named MVP in 1946 (led league with .365 average, 124 runs, 228 hits, 50 doubles and 20 triples) and 1948 (topped N.L. with .376 average, 135 runs, 230 hits, 46 doubles, 18 triples and 131 RBI). All told, the sweet-swinging left-handed batter paced the Senior Circuit in batting seven times.

A member of three World Championship teams (1942, 1944 and 1946), Musial was chosen to play in 24 All-Star Games (tied for the most in major league history with Hank Aaron and Willie Mays). His six home runs are the most in Mid-Summer Classic annals. He won the 1955 game with a 12th-inning homer off Frank Sullivan of the Boston Red Sox at County Stadium in Milwaukee.

On May 13, 1958, Musial collected the 3,000th hit of his career with a pinch double off Moe Drabowsky of the Chicago Cubs at Wrigley Field. Musial finished his career with 3,630 hits. At the time of his retirement, he held major league records for extra-base hits and total bases and N.L. marks for runs, hits, doubles and RBI. He has the fourth-most hits in baseball history - behind Pete Rose (4,256), Ty Cobb (4,190) and Hank Aaron (3,771).

Musial was the first player in Cardinals' history to have his uniform number retired, and he was a first-ballot Hall of Fame selection in 1969, being named on 93 percent of the ballots. Musial was a long-time senior vice-president with the organization and served as general manager in 1967, when the Cardinals won the World Series over the Boston Red Sox. More than anything else, the personable Musial has been a great emissary for all that is good about the game of baseball. A bronze statue of Musial stands outside Busch Stadium on the newly-dedicated Musial Plaza with the following words: "Here stands baseball's perfect warrior. Here stands baseball's perfect knight." Musial was chosen in 2010 by President Barack Obama to receive the Presidential Medal of Freedom - the highest civilian honor for a United States citizen.

ENOS SLAUGHTER

OUTFIELDER

9

FULL NAME: Enos Bradsher Slaughter
HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 190 BATTED: Left THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/16 at Roxboro, North Carolina.
DIED: 8/12/02 at Durham, North Carolina.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1938-42, 1946-53.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1996.

He didn't have the nickname, but Enos Slaughter was a genuine "Charlie Hustle." Throughout his career, he was known for his all-out style of play.

Slaughter dashed into baseball immortality in Game 7 of the 1946 World Series against the Boston Red Sox. With the scored tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth inning, Slaughter led off with a single. He remained there as the next two batters were retired and then took off to steal second base with left fielder Harry Walker at the plate. Walker stroked a double into center field, and Boston's Leon Culberson threw the ball to shortstop Johnny Pesky. While Pesky hesitated on the relay, Slaughter kept on running, ignoring third base coach Mike Gonzalez's stop sign and scoring what proved to be the series-deciding run.

Long before his "Mad Dash," Slaughter was a bona fide all-star. He broke into the major leagues with the Cardinals in 1938 and the next year led the National League with 52 doubles while batting .320. It was the first of five straight seasons in which Slaughter batted at a .300 clip. In 1942, he had a .318 average - second in the N.L. to Ernie Lombardi of the Boston Braves at .330 - and league-leading totals of 188 hits and 17 triples. St. Louis' outfield cast of Slaughter in right, Terry Moore in center and Stan Musial in left is regarded as the best in franchise history, and helped lead the Redbirds to the 1942 World Championship over the New York Yankees.

After a three-year stint in the service, Slaughter returned to the Cardinals in 1946. All he did is top the league with 130 RBI to go with a .300 average and 18 home runs. In 1950 and 1952, Slaughter drove in 101 runs while hitting fewer than 15 home runs both years.

On April 11, 1954, Slaughter was traded to the Yankees for outfielder Bill Virdon, pitcher Mel Wright and minor league outfielder Emil Tellinger. Upon being told of the deal, Slaughter sat in front of his locker and cried. On St. Louis' career lists at the time of his uniform retirement, he ranked second in RBI (1,148); third in triples (135) and walks (839); fourth in games (1,820), runs (1,071), hits (2,064) and total bases (3,138); fifth in at-bats (6,775) and doubles (366); and 11th in home runs (146). He batted .300 in eight of his 13 seasons with the Cardinals.

Slaughter subsequently played for the Kansas City Athletics (1955-56) before returning to the Yankees (1956-59) and finishing his career with the Milwaukee Braves (1959). The Veterans Committee elected the 10-time All-Star, who was nicknamed "Country," into the Hall of Fame in 1985.

KEN BOYER
THIRD BASEMAN/MANAGER

14

FULL NAME: Kenton Lloyd Boyer
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 200 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 5/20/31 at Liberty, Missouri. DIED: 9/7/82 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1955-65, 1971-72, 1978-80.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

Since 1900, only one player in Cardinals' history has hit for the cycle on two occasions. It's Ken Boyer, who accomplished the feat Sept. 14, 1961, against the Chicago Cubs and June 16, 1964, against the Houston Colt .45s.

Boyer was a solid all-around third baseman. He hit for average and power and earned five Gold Glove awards for his fielding prowess. From 1958 to 1963, he averaged 26 home runs and 98 RBI to go with a .304 batting average. Then in 1964, Boyer was named the National League Most Valuable Player after batting .295 with 24 homers and a league-leading 119 RBI. In the World Series against the New York Yankees, Boyer clubbed a grand slam in Game 4 to give the Cardinals a 4-3 victory, and he contributed three hits and three runs to help St. Louis win the seventh and deciding game by the score of 7-5.

An N.L. All-Star in 1956 and from 1959 to 1964, Boyer hit a two-run homer in the second 1960 game at Yankee Stadium and a solo blast in the 1964 contest at Shea Stadium. He was a .348 batter (8-for-23) in the Mid-Summer Classic.

"The Captain" was traded to the New York Mets on Oct. 20, 1965, in exchange for pitcher Al Jackson and third baseman Charley Smith. On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Boyer ranked third in home runs (255); fifth in RBI (1,001) and total bases (3,011); sixth in at-bats (6,334); and seventh in games (1,667), runs (988) and hits (1,855) and ninth in walks (631). His seven grand slams are tied for the third most in club history behind Stan Musial's nine and Albert Pujols' 11.

Being a native Missourian, Boyer was always a Cardinal at heart. He returned to the organization as a minor league manager in 1970 and again from 1973 to 1976 and served as a major league coach in 1971 and 1972. He replaced Vern Rapp as manager of the big league club April 29, 1978, and piloted the Cardinals to an 86-76 record and third-place finish in the N.L. East Division the following year. But in 1980, with expectations high, the Cardinals never got untracked, and Boyer was dismissed June 8 after a 6-4 loss in the first game of a double-header against the Montreal Expos dropped their record to 18-33.

Boyer was diagnosed with lung cancer in the early 1980s, and the disease ultimately took his life in 1982 at just 51 years of age

DIZZY DEAN

17

FULL NAME: Jay Hanna (Dizzy) Dean
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 182 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 1/16/10 at Lucas, Arkansas. DIED: 7/17/74 at Reno, Nevada.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1930, 1932-37.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1974.

Dizzy Dean was the prototypical member of the "Gas House Gang." The right-handed pitcher was one of baseball's zaniest characters. He also was a warrior and a winner.

After a cup of coffee with the Cardinals in 1930, Dean became a mainstay two years later. He put together his best season in 1934, going 30-7 with a 2.66 ERA and 195 strikeouts. Dean led the National League in wins and strikeouts and ranked second in ERA en route to being named the Most Valuable Player. He is the only pitcher in Cardinals' post-1900 history to win 30 games and the last N.L. hurler to accomplish the feat. St. Louis won the World Series that year over the Detroit Tigers four games to three, with Dean and his brother, Paul, accounting for all four victories. Dizzy fired a six-hit shutout to win Game 7 by the score of 11-0.

Dean, who led the league with 28 wins in 1935, was selected to four consecutive All-Star Games from 1934 to 1937. He was the winning pitcher in 1936 and the loser in 1937. But Dean lost more than the game in 1937. A line drive off the bat of Cleveland Indians' outfielder Earl Averill in the third inning broke one of Dean's toes. Dean refused to take time off to let the injury heal, and he began utilizing an unnatural pitching delivery that led to an arm injury from which he never fully recovered.

On April 16, 1938, the Cardinals traded Dean to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for pitchers Clyde Shoun and Curt Davis, outfielder Tuck Stainback and $185,000. On St. Louis' career lists upon his number retirement, Dean ranked second in strikeouts (1,095); third in winning percentage (.641); sixth in wins (134), complete games (141) and shutouts (23); and ninth in innings pitched (1,738).

Dean was known for his fun-loving lifestyle and story telling as much as his success. In a double-header against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Sportsman's Park on Sept. 21, 1934, Dizzy authored a three-hit shutout in the opener and Paul followed with a no-hitter. "Gee whiz," Dizzy said afterwards. "If I'd a known Paul was gonna do it, I'd a thrown one, too."

Following his playing days, Dean was a colorful broadcaster who became an ambassador for baseball. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1953.

LOU BROCK

20

FULL NAME: Louis Clark Brock
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 170 BATS: Left THROWS: Left
BORN: 6/18/39 at El Dorado, Arkansas.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1964-79.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1979.

If it's been said once, it's been said a million times. The Cardinals' acquisition of outfielder Lou Brock from the Chicago Cubs on June 15, 1964, ranks as perhaps the greatest steal in baseball history. St. Louis traded pitchers Ernie Broglio and Bobby Shantz and outfielder Doug Clemens in exchange for Brock and pitchers Jack Spring and Paul Toth.

Over the course of his career with the Cardinals, Brock established himself as the most prolific base stealer in baseball history to that time. His 938 stolen bases stood as the major league record until Rickey Henderson bettered the mark in 1991. Brock's total remains the National League standard, and he holds the major league record with 12 seasons of 50 or more steals. Brock led the N.L. in thefts on eight occasions (1966 to 1969 and 1971 to 1974). He set the season record with 118 in 1974, bettering the mark of 104 by Maury Wills during the 1962 campaign. In 1978, the N.L. announced that its annual stolen base leader would receive the Lou Brock Award, making Brock the first active player to have an award named after him.

But Brock was more than a base burglar. He was a career .293 batter with 3,023 hits. Seven times he batted at a .300 or better clip. In 1967, Brock slugged 21 home runs and had 76 RBI from the leadoff spot. He also had 52 stolen bases to become the first player in baseball history with 20 homers and 50 steals. The following year, Brock topped the N.L. in doubles (46), triples (14) and stolen bases (62), the first player in the Senior Circuit to do so since Honus Wagner of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1908. Brock joined the 3,000-hit club Aug. 13, 1979, with a fourth-inning single off Dennis Lamp of the Chicago Cubs at Busch Stadium.

Brock paid immediate dividends in St. Louis, batting .348 for the balance of the 1964 season and propelling the Cardinals from eighth place in the N.L. to a World Championship over the New York Yankees. The Cardinals won the World Series again in 1967 over the Boston Red Sox and were N.L. champions in 1968. Brock was at his best in postseason play. His .391 career batting average (34-for-87) is a World Series record, while his 14 stolen bases are tied for the most all time with Eddie Collins of the Philadelphia Athletics and Chicago White Sox.

On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Brock ranked first in stolen bases (888 - Vince Coleman is second with 549); second in games (2,289), at-bats (9,125), runs (1,427), hits (2,713), doubles (434) and total bases (3,776); fourth in triples (121); sixth in walks (681); and 10th in RBI (814). He was a six-time N.L. All-Star.

Brock has remained active in baseball since retiring as a player following the 1979 season. He worked in the Cardinals' broadcast booth from 1981 to 1984; was a baserunning consultant for the Minnesota Twins in 1987, Los Angeles Dodgers in 1988 and Montreal Expos in 1993; and has served as a special instructor for the Cardinals (baserunning and outfield play) since 1995. He was a first-ballot Hall of Fame inductee in 1985.

Fans voted Brock the left fielder on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005 as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

WHITEY HERZOG
MANAGER

24

FULL NAME: Dorrel Norman Elvert Herzog
BORN: 11/9/1931 at New Athens, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1980-90
NUMBER RETIRED: 2010

Baseball in St. Louis was reborn in the 1980s under Whitey Herzog.

A native of New Athens, Ill., in the Metro East area of St. Louis, Herzog managed the Cardinals from 1980 to 1990. He ranks third in franchise history with 822 victories – trailing only Tony La Russa (1,318 through 2010) and Red Schoendienst (1,041) – and his teams won three National League pennants and the 1982 World Series.

Hand-picked by club president August Busch Jr., Herzog took over the Redbirds on June 9, 1980. Two months later, Herzog turned over his managerial duties to become general manager and have more direct involvement in player personnel. He assumed the dual role of field manager and general manager in October.

At the winter meetings that December, Herzog began to transform the Cardinals with three blockbuster trades involving 21 players. He envisioned a team built on speed and defense in spacious Busch Stadium.

St. Louis posted the best record in the N.L. in 1981 but finished second in the Eastern Division in both halves of the strike-interrupted season and did not make the playoffs. Herzog relinquished his general manager duties on Opening Day of the 1982 season. The Cardinals went on to win the World Series with a thrilling seven-game victory over the Milwaukee Brewers. It marked the franchise's first championship in 15 years.

Two more pennants followed in 1985 and 1987. Meanwhile, fans flocked to Busch Stadium to watch the Cardinals' entertaining style of play that became known as "Whiteyball." In Herzog's eight full seasons as skipper, St. Louis drew at least 2.4 million spectators annually while topping the 3-million plateau for the first two times in club annals (1987 and 1989). Herzog, who valued his sterling relationship with Busch, resigned July 5, 1990, less than a year after Busch died, and did not manage again.

Before coming to St. Louis, Herzog managed the Texas Rangers (1973), California Angels (1974 on an interim basis) and Kansas City Royals (1975-79). The Royals won three straight American League Western Division titles from 1976 to 1978 but fell to the New York Yankees in the League Championship Series all three times.

Herzog's lifetime managerial record was 1,281-1,125, a .532 winning percentage. His win total ranks 32nd on baseball's all-time list through 2010. He was named the 1982 Major League Manger of the Year and 1985 N.L. Manager of the Year. The charismatic "White Rat" also spent time as a big league coach, farm system director and scout and briefly served as general manager of the Angels in 1993 and 1994.

Primarily an outfielder during an eight-year big-league playing career, Herzog batted .257 with 25 home runs and 172 RBI for the Washington Senators (1956-58), Kansas City Athletics (1958-60), Baltimore Orioles (1961-62) and Detroit Tigers (1963).

As a minor leaguer with the McAlester (Okla.) Rockets in 1949, Herzog was christened with the name "Whitey" by sportscaster Bill Speith for his light-colored hair.

Herzog was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2010 by the Veterans Committee. Two days before the enshrinement ceremonies July 25, Cardinals chairman Bill DeWitt Jr. announced that Herzog's number 24 would be retired by the organization. Herzog wore No. 3 in 1980, but infielder Ken Oberkfell gave up No. 24 after the season and Herzog took it.

BRUCE SUTTER
PITCHER

42

FULL NAME: Howard Bruce Sutter
HEIGHT: 6-2 WEIGHT: 190 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 1/8/53 at Lancaster, Pennsylvania.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1981-84
NUMBER RETIRED: 2006.

Bruce Sutter was a pioneer whose journey landed him in Cooperstown.

The right-handed lights-out closer, who made famous the split-fingered fastball, was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2006. He became the fourth reliever enshrined into baseball's hallowed ground, following Hoyt Wilhelm (1985), Rollie Fingers (1992) and Dennis Eckersley (2004). Sutter was the first player never to start to a game to be selected.

Sutter pitched for the Cardinals from 1981 to 1984. Acquired from the Chicago Cubs on Dec. 9, 1980, in exchange for first baseman Leon Durham, third baseman Ken Reitz and minor-league third baseman Ty Waller, Sutter proved to be a key acquisition for general manager and manager Whitey Herzog in his transformation of the Cardinals from underachievers to World Champions.

During the strike-shortened 1981 season, Sutter saved 25 games – the most by a St. Louis pitcher since the save became an officially recognized statistic in 1969 – with chants of "Bruuuuuce!" bellowing throughout Busch Stadium every time he ran in from the bullpen. Sutter recorded 36 saves in 1982 and struck of Gorman Thomas of the Milwaukee Brewers to wrap up Game 7 of the World Series.

Sutter had 45 saves in 1985 to tie the Major League record – set by Dan Quisenberry of the Kansas City Royals two years earlier – that since has been eclipsed. The Cardinals elected not to re-sign Sutter after that season, and he moved on to the Atlanta Braves. He subsequently was hampered by shoulder problems that led to his retirement following the 1988 campaign at the age of 35.

Struggling in the minor leagues with Class-A Quincy (Ill.) in 1973, Sutter learned the revolutionary split-fingered pitch from former Cardinals' right-hander Fred Martin, then a Chicago minor-league pitching coach. The pitch, an offshoot of the forkball that Sutter was suited to throw because of his long fingers, aptly was described as "a fastball that winds up like a dead fish" because of its wicked forward spin.

By 1976, Sutter was in the big leagues with the Cubs. He won the 1979 N.L. Cy Young Award after amassing 37 saves and a 2.22 ERA with 110 strikeouts in 101.3 innings pitched. He was only the third reliever to be so honored, following Mark Marshall of the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1974 and Sparky Lyle of the New York Yankees in 1977.

In 12 major-league seasons, Sutter totaled 300 saves to rank third on baseball's all-time list at the time of his retirement and 20th through 2006. He worked more than one inning for 188 of his rescues and surpassed 100 innings pitched in a season on five occasions, with one more year at 99. Sutter led the Senior Circuit in saves in 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982 and 1984. He was a six-time All-Star – appearing in four games and earning two wins (1978 and 1979) and two saves (1980 and 1981) while not allowing a run – and received the Rolaids Relief Man Award four times.

Sutter's four-year St. Louis save total of 127 established a franchise record and now ranks fourth behind

BOB GIBSON
PITCHER

45

FULL NAME: Robert Gibson
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195 BATS: Right THROWS: Right
BORN: 11/9/35 at Omaha, Nebraska.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1959-75.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1975.

Bob Gibson ranks as the greatest pitcher in Cardinals' history. A glance at the record book supports the claim. On the franchise's career lists, the right-hander is first in wins (251), complete games (255), shutouts (56), innings pitched (3,885.1) and strikeouts (3,117). He is second in games pitched (528) and tied for 10th in ERA (2.91).

An outstanding athlete, Gibson played with the Harlem Globetrotters before arriving in St. Louis to stay in 1961. Three years later, he posted a 19-12 record with a 3.01 ERA in helping the Cardinals win the National League pennant. After losing Game 2 of the World Series to the New York Yankees, Gibson posted complete-game victories in Game 5 (5-2 in 10 innings) and Game 7 (7-5) and earned Series Most Valuable Player honors.

Gibson was on his way to another banner season in 1967 when a line drive off the bat of Pittsburgh Pirates' outfielder Roberto Clemente broke Gibson's right leg July 15. He was sidelined 52 days but returned to pitch the N.L. pennant clincher against the Philadelphia Phillies on Sept. 18 and then go 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA, three complete games and 26 strikeouts in the Cardinals' World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox.

The postseason dominance was an indicator of things to come. In 1968, Gibson authored the greatest season by a pitcher in modern history. His 1.12 ERA established an all-time record for 300 or more innings. Gibson posted a 22-9 record with league-leading totals of 13 shutouts and 268 strikeouts. During one stretch, he surrendered two earned runs over 95 innings. Gibson was named the N.L. Cy Young Award winner and MVP. For an encore, Gibson set a record with 17 strikeouts in Game 1 of the World Series against the Detroit Tigers (a 4-0 victory). He pitched two more complete games (winning Game 4 by the score of 10-1 before losing Game 7 by a 4-1 margin) to run his streak to a record eight straight complete-game starts in Series play. Gibson, the series MVP, totaled 35 strikeouts in the three games to establish a Fall Classic standard.

Gibson won his second Cy Young Award in 1970 on the strength of a 23-7 record and 3.12 ERA. He fired a no-hitter against Pittsburgh on Aug. 14, 1971, winning 11-0 at Three Rivers Stadium, and became the second pitcher in baseball history to record 3,000 career strikeouts July 17, 1974 (following Walter Johnson of the Washington Senators).

Accompanying his blazing fastball and pinpoint control was an intense demeanor. Gibson was a complete pitcher, clouting 24 home runs and winning nine Gold Gloves. The nine-time N.L. All-Star was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981, his first year of eligibility. "Gibby" served as pitching coach for the New York Mets (1981) and Atlanta Braves (1982-84) and bullpen coach for St. Louis (1995). He also has done some broadcasting and has been a special instructor for the Cardinals since 1996.

Fans voted Gibson the starting pitcher on the All-Busch Stadium team, which was announced on Oct. 1, 2005, as part of final weekend festivities at the stadium.

PROMINENT CARDINALS WHO WORE NO. 45

- Von McDaniel, 1957-58

ROGERS HORNSBY

SECOND BASEMAN/MANAGER

FULL NAME: Rogers Hornsby
HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 175 BATTED: Right THREW: Right
BORN: 4/27/1896 at Winters, Texas. DIED: 1/5/1963 at Chicago, Illinois.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1915-26, 1933.
NUMBER RETIRED: 1997 (The Cardinals did not have numbers on their uniforms during Hornsby's tenure).

Since 1900, only two players have batted .400 on three occasions – Ty Cobb and Rogers Hornsby.

Only two playes have won multiple Triple Crowns – Ted Williams and Hornsby.

Hornsby, primarily a second baseman during his 23-year career, batted .401 in 1922, .403 in 1925 and .424 (a modern-day record) in 1924. He is the lone player in Cardinals' history to reach the coveted plateau. Hornsby led the National League in batting six consecutive seasons from 1920 to 1925, compiling a .397 average during that span. From 1921 to 1925, his average was .402, making him the only player ever to bat .400 over a five-year period.

Arguably the greatest right-handed batter of all time, Hornsby won the Triple Crown in 1922 and 1925. The first time, he batted .401 with 42 home runs (then an N.L. record) and 152 RBI while setting club records that still stand of 141 runs, 250 hits, 450 total bases, a .756 slugging percentage and a 33-game hitting streak. The second time, Hornsby had a .403 average with 39 homers and 139 RBI en route to being named the N.L. Most Valuable Player.

"The Rajah" spent the first 12 years of his career in St. Louis, leading the league in slugging percentage seven times; total bases six times; hits, doubles and RBI four times; runs three times; triples and home runs twice; and walks once. He was well known for refusing to go to movies because he thought the "strain" of watching the screen in darkness would hinder his eyesight.

On May 31, 1925, Hornsby took over as manager of the Cardinals, as well, replacing Branch Rickey. Hornsby continued in the dual role in 1926 and piloted the club to an 89-65 record and its first-ever World Championship, a seven-game victory over the New York Yankees.

An outspoken individual, Hornsby at times was critical of owner Sam Breadon. Eventually, Breadon had enough, and on Dec. 20, 1926, Hornsby was traded to the New York Giants for infielder Frankie Frisch (who had had a falling out with his manager, John McGraw) and pitcher Jimmy Ring.

Hornsby subsequently played for and managed the Boston Braves (1928) and Chicago Cubs (1929-32), winning a second MVP Award in 1929, before returning to the Cardinals in 1933. His second stint, however, lasted just three months before Hornsby was released to become manager of the cross-town Browns. He remained in the Browns' dugout until midway through the 1937 season. Hornsby returned to manage the Browns for the first two months of the 1952 campaign before moving on to the Cincinnati Reds for roughly a season and a half.

On the Cardinals' career lists upon his number retirement, Hornsby ranked first in batting average (.359); second in triples (143); third in runs (1,089), hits (2,110) and total bases (3,342); fourth in doubles (367) and RBI (1,072); seventh in home runs (193); seventh in walks (660); eighth in at-bats (5,881); and ninth in games (1,580). He played 997 games at second base, the fourth-most in franchise history.

Hornsby, whose lifetime batting average of .358 is the highest of any right-handed batter and second only to Cobb's .366 among all players, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1942.

AUGUST A. BUSCH JR.

PRESIDENT

85

FULL NAME: August Anheuser Busch, Jr.

BORN: 3/28/1899 at St. Louis, Missouri. DIED: 9/29/89 at St. Louis, Missouri.

YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1953-89.

NUMBER RETIRED: 1984.

August A. Busch Jr.'s reign as president of the Cardinals was marked by success on and off the field. Between 1953 and 1989, the Cardinals won three World Championships (1964, 1967 and 1982) and three additional National League pennants (1968, 1985 and 1987). They also forged the reputation of having the classiest organization in Major League Baseball.

Busch purchased the franchise from Fred Saigh on Feb. 20, 1953. Busch was president of Anheuser-Busch brewery, which benefited from the acquisition of the ball club. Although he didn't devote a tremendous amount of time to baseball-related matters early on, by the 1960s, Busch had grown tired of the Cardinals routinely finishing no higher than the middle of the pack in the N.L.

After winning the 1964 World Series over the New York Yankees, Busch was instrumental in the building of "new" Busch Stadium. The $26 million ballpark opened May 12, 1966, with a 4-3 victory over the Atlanta Braves in 12 innings and became the foundation of a rejuvenated downtown. In 1967, the Cardinals surpassed 2,000,000 in home attendance for the first time in franchise history.

Busch retired as leader of the brewery in 1975, handing over control to his son, August III. The Cardinals failed to win during the decade of the 1970s, leaving Busch anxious to return to prominence. He made arguably his best baseball decision June 9, 1980, when he hired Whitey Herzog as manager. Busch and Herzog enjoyed a sterling relationship that played a major role in the Cardinals' renewed success. Home attendance soared, with the club drawing 3,000,000-plus fans in both 1987 and 1989.

Throughout his ownership of the Cardinals, "Gussie" was one of the City of St. Louis' most popular citizens. He was a regular at home games, and on special occasions would ride around the stadium atop a Budweiser wagon pulled by a team of signature Anheuser-Busch Clydesdales.

The Cardinals retired the number 85 in Busch's honor in conjunction with his 85th birthday in 1984. He died Sept. 29, 1989, at the age of 90. August III subsequently served as chief executive until Anheuser-Busch sold the club to the current ownership group March 21, 1996.

"That's a winner!"

JACK BUCK
BROADCASTER

FULL NAME: John Francis Buck
BORN: 8/21/1924 at Holyoke, Massachusetts.
DIED: 6/18/2002 at St. Louis, Missouri.
YEARS WITH CARDINALS: 1954-2001.
NUMBER RETIRED: 2002.

He never swung a bat or thew a pitch. Yet, Jack Buck ranks as one of the most popular individuals ever associated with the Cardinals - perhaps the most popular.

Buck served as the "Voice of the Cardinals" on KMOX radio from 1954 to 2001. He was behind the microphone for some of the franchise's most-memorable moments: Bob Gibson's no-hitter in 1971, Lou Brock's 105th stolen base in 1974 and Mark McGwire's 61st home run in 1998. And his legendary call of Ozzie Smith's game-winning home run in Game 5 of the 1985 National League Championship Series against the Los Angeles Dodgers, when Buck told St. Louis fans to "Go crazy, folks! Go crazy," still sends chills up Cardinals' fans spines every time it is replayed.

Through it all, Buck's signature phrase after every Cardinals' victory was "That's a winner," and those words are printed on Buck's retired number pennant.

From 1954 to 1969, Buck worked along side another legend, Harry Caray, to form what is widely regarded as the best baseball broadcast duo ever assembled. From 1972 to 2001, Buck teamed with former Cards' third baseman Mike Shannon, and the pair became as synonymous with St. Louis baseball as Stan Musial and Bob Gibson. Beginning in 1991, Buck had the privilege of calling games with his son Joe, who now is the lead baseball and football announcer for FOX Sports television.

Buck was inducted into the broadcaster's wing of the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1987. He was honored with a statue outside the Cardinals' executive offices at Busch Stadium in 1998.

There was more to Buck than Cardinals' baseball. He broadcast several World Series for CBS Radio. His most-famous non-St. Louis call came in Game 1 of the 1988 Fall Classic when an injured Kirk Gibson hit a game-winning pinch-hit homer for the Dodgers against the Oakland Athletics. "Unbelievable!" Buck exclaimed. "I don't believe what I just saw." Buck was CBS-TV's lead play-by-play announcer in 1990 and 1991, and he also worked for ABC and NBC.

Buck enjoyed a distinguished football broadcasting career, as well. He called one of the most famous games ever, the 1967 Ice Bowl between the Dallas Cowboys and Green Bay Packers, for CBS, and he was the radio voice of Monday Night Football for CBS from 1978 to 1996, working with former NFL head coach Hank Stram. Buck, whose total of 17 Super Bowl broadcasts is the most of any announcer, received the Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

In addition, Buck announced basketball and hockey over the course of his career and also worked with Chris Schenkel on the Pro Bowler's Tour. Outside of sports, he served as the original host of "At Your Service" on KMOX, a program that essentially started the phenomenon of talk radio.

Buck's popularity extends well beyond his trademark gravely voice. Fans from coast to coast, but particularly those in St. Louis, knew him as a tremendously generous man who made time for everyone. He was named St. Louis' Citizen of the Year in 2000 for his contributions to the community.

When Buck passed away in June 2002, some 10,000 fans attended his public memorial service at Busch Stadium.

2. He is not the winning pitcher, and
3. He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
   a. He enters the game with lead of no more than three runs, and pitches for at least one inning, or
   b. He enters the game with potential tying run either on base, at-bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces), or
   c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE:

Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

DETERMINING AN EARNED-RUN-AVERAGE:

Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, then divide the number by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE:

Divide the total number of putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

DETERMINING ON-BASE AVERAGE:

Add the total of hits, walks and hit-by-pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit-by-pitches and sacrifice flies.

DETERMINING SLUGGING AVERAGE:

Divide total bases by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base by interference or obstruction).

TRADING REGULATIONS:

Trades may be made with any other major league club in the period from the end of the championship season through July 31 without waivers. Waivers are required, however:

1. If the assignment is to another major league club: From August 1 to the end of the season.
2. If assignment is to a minor league club, with right of recall, at any time after three years from the date the player first reported to a major league club during a championship season.
3. If assigned to a minor league club without right of recall, after acquiring three years service: At any time during the year.
4. If assigned to a minor league club, without right of recall, at any time prior to acquiring three years of service, special waivers are required between September 1 and the opening of the following season. If player is claimed, request may be withdrawn. If no claims are made, club has 7-day period in which to make assignment to minor leagues.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A "ROOKIE":

A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER:

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the lost column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR FIELDING CHAMPIONSHIP:

Highest fielding average and (a) catcher must have played in at least 81 games; (b) infielder or outfielder must have played in at least 108 games; and (c) pitcher must have 162 innings pitched.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES HITTING STREAK:

A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAMES PLAYING STREAK:

A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

REGULATION GAME:

A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because (1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or (2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

DISABLED LISTS:

15-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 15 calendar days, beginning on the day after the player's last game. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY: Minimum period of inactivity is 60 calendar days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of 40 players.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

CREDENTIALS — Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news-gathering agencies and must be worn in a visible manner at all times. All requests for credentials should be made online at www.credentials.mlb.com. Requests should be made at least two working days prior to the game. Credentials are issued to working members of the press only; no spouses, guests or children of press members will be issued passes, and credentials are not transferable. Credentialed media are prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations could result in immediate revocation of the credential. All game credentials will be available four hours prior to the start of the game at the media window, 424 South 7th St., located at the southwest corner of the stadium, near Gate 2. Photo identification is required. The press entrance is to the right of the media window.

ADMISSION — All media should enter the stadium through the press entrance at the southwest corner of the stadium, 424 South 7th St. The stadium will be open to media four hours before game time. If an earlier entrance to the park is necessary, please contact a member of the media relations staff.

PRESS BOX — The broadcast level of the pressbox is located on Level 3 (Loge Concourse) and the upper pressbox is located on Level 4 (Terrace Concourse) of the stadium. The media elevator is loacted in the lobby of the media entrance and is designated for employees and press only. Media should take the elevator to either the third level (broadcast) or fourth level (writers/radio) to reach the pressboxes. The press box is for working members of the media only and is a non-smoking area.

MEDIA DINING — The media dining facility is on the main service level of the stadium. It is open for meal service one-and one half hours prior to game time to accredited members of the media. The room is open for approximately one hour after the game begins. The dining facility is located down the hallway off the media entrance lobby, on your left at the end of the hall.

CLUBHOUSES — Both the Cardinals and visitors clubhouses are located on the lower level of the stadium. The Cardinals clubhouse is on the first-base side while the visitors area can be found on the third-base side of the stadium. All working media with clubhouse credentials have access to the clubhouses 3-1/2 hours prior to game time until one hour before first pitch. After the game, media who were issued clubhouse credentials will be admitted no longer than 10 minutes following the game's conclusion. The Cardinals clubhouse is closed during batting practice. Check with the visiting media relations representative for rules that should be adhered to in the visitors clubhouse during the teams stay in St. louis. At times, certain restrictions may be imposed for meetings, cooling-off periods, etc., for both clubhouses.

FIELD — No person is allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly for field privileges. All non-uniformed personnel must leave the field 30 minutes prior to first pitch.

PRESS NOTES — Game notes and statistics are available in the press box approximately two hours prior to game time and on www.mlbpressbox.com. Play-by-play sheets and box scores will be available after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES — Media guides are available by request in the press box from club media relations representatives.

MLBPRESSBOX.COM — Gamenotes, team headshots, logos, press releases and MLB information can all be found at this site. Accredited media agencies can sign up for an account to have access at all times to regular season and postseason data.

CARDINALS BROADCASTING

RADIO

KMOX Radio returns as the Voice of the Cardinals over the air-waves after a five-year hiatus. The station's 50,000-watt signal at night can reach more than 40 states and parts of Canada. The station carried Cardinals games for 52 years through 2005. The club boasts a radio network of 117 stations covering nine states (Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee). KMOX will broadcast all 162 of the 2011 games and Tuesday, Thursday, Saturday and Sunday spring training games. Mike Shannon and partner John Rooney will continue to provide play-by-play commentary.

MIKE SHANNON

Mike Shannon will be broadcasting his 40th season on the Cardinals radio network. Throughout his years as a broadcastor for the Cardinals, Shannon has also made appearances for the Cardinals television broadcasts, including as a pre-game analyst for FSN Midwest. He also has worked with NBC's Baseball Game of the Week and called Cardinals football games on radio.

A St. Louis native, Shannon broke into the big leagues with the Cardinals in 1962 and became the Cardinals regular right fielder during the 1964 World Championship season. During the 1964 Series opener vs. New York, he hit a game-tying, two-run homer off Whitey Ford as St. Louis went on to defeat the Yankees in seven games. In 1967 Shannon was moved to third base to make room for newly acquired right fielder Roger Maris, as the Cardinals went on to win two straight National League pennants in 1967 and '68 as well as the 1967 World Series. His home run off Boston's Gary Bell was the key blow in Game 3 of the 1967 Series and his solo shot in Game 7 of the 1968 Series was the Cardinals only run off Mickey Lolich as the Tigers clinched the Series.

Mike's career was cut short by nephritis, a kidney disease, in 1970. He joined the Cardinals front office in 1971 as assistant director of promotions and sales and entered the broadcast booth in 1972, where he has remained. His many years with the organization give Shannon a unique insight in his commentary. He was honored at the end of the 2007 season for his 50 years of service with the club.

He has received numerous awards and honors throughout his career. A gifted athlete, he was a High School All-American football player, and in 1957 was named the Missouri prep Player of the Year in both basketball and football - the only player ever to receive both in the same year. He was named St. Louis Ambassador's 1993 Sportsman of the Year, St. Louis Variety Club 1996 Champion for Kids and received the 1985 Emmy Award for Sports Broadcasting, St. Louis chapter. In 1999, Shannon was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in recognition of his popularity and performance on the air and as a player on the field, and in November 2009 was selected to be a member of the Academy of Missouri Squires. In September 2010, Shannon was honored as St. Louis Press Club Media Person of the Year.

Mike, 71, resides in Illinois. He, and his late wife, Judy, have six children, 18 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

JOHN ROONEY

John Rooney is in his sixth year of broadcasting Cardinals games with partner Mike Shannon. Rooney, a Richmond, Mo. native, came to St. Louis from the Chicago White Sox where he spent 18 years (1988-2005) - one in TV and 17 seasons following in the radio booth. The Cardinals World Championship crown in 2006 gave John the privalege of working with the World Champion team in back-to-back seasons, following the White Sox win in 2005.

Rooney, 56, called his first major league game in 1983 with Shannon and Hall of Fame Broadcaster Jack Buck during a three-game series between the Cardinals and host Cincinnati Reds. He began his baseball broadcasting career at the class AAA level, spending the 1981-82 seasons with the Oklahoma 89ers and the 1983-84 campaigns with the Louisville Redbirds. John juggled two stints in the 1980's as a sports reporter for KMOX around his baseball broadcasting and serving as the voice of Missouri Tigers football and basketball on radio and TV for 20 seasons. His major league baseball radio assignments have included the Division Series (1995-97, 2003-04), League Championship Series (1987-97), CBS and ESPN radio All-Star Games (1990-1997, 2003-present), CBS radio World Series (1986-97), the FOX Saturday afternoon "Game of the Week" (1996-98) and select Sunday Night Baseball for ESPN Radio (2004 to present). John also has broadcast several college football bowls as well as the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, including 10 NCAA National Championship Games on CBS Radio Network, NCAA National Semi-Finals for 19 years and the Final Four (1984-2002).

Rooney was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2004. He and his wife, Susan, have two daughters, Colleen and Rachel.

TELEVISION

Fox Sports Midwest, a regional cable network, will be the sole carrier of locally broadcast Cardinals telecasts beginning in 2011. The network will carry all non-nationally broadcast games and five spring training games. Play-by-play and color commentary will be provided by Dan McLaughlin, Al Hrabosky and Rick Horton.

AL HRABOSKY

Al Hrabosky will be calling games on Cardinals telecasts for his 27th season. It marks his 15th straight-season in his role as color commentator on FSN Midwest. He began working as a commentator on telecasts for the team in 1985 and through the years has worked for Fox Sports Midwest, WB11, Prime and Sportstime cable.

Hrabosky made a smooth transition from one of St. Louis' best-loved athletes, the "Mad Hungarian" of the Cardinals 1970's bullpen, to one of the town's favorite broadcasters. During a 13-year major league career in which he compiled 97 saves and earned Fireman of the Year honors in 1975, Hrabosky already was preparing himself for broadcasting by working as a sportscaster for a St. Louis TV station.

Hrabosky, 61, was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame in February 2003, the Fullerton College Hall of Fame in 2004 and will be inducted into the Savanna High School Hall of Fame in 2011. Away from the booth he is active in many charities, including Little Patriots Embraced. He and his wife, June, reside in St. Louis.

DAN McLAUGHLIN

Dan McLaughlin enters his 13th year as the play-by-play voice for Cardinals television broadcasts on Fox Sports Midwest. He also contributes pre-game content for the FS Midwest Pre-game Show and works with the Cardinals front office in producing video stories for the club's website and social media sites. In the past, Dan also filled in on Cardinals radio broadcasts.

During the baseball off-season, McLaughlin has worked as an annoucer for the St. Louis Blues telecasts on FSN Midwest and CW11, and has also been a pregame, intermission and postgame analyst for Blues radio broadcasts. He has also served as a television play-by-play voice for the University of Missouri men's basketball team, Missouri Valley Conference and the Mid-Continent Conference. Dan has recently announced college football and basketball games for ESPN. Before joining the Cardinals, McLaughlin did baseball play-by-play at the collegiate level.

A 1996 graduate of Lindenwood College, he began his professional broadcasting career in 1996 as a sports talk show host at KMOX Radio. McLaughlin, 37, is involved in several local charities as well as hosting "The Dan McLaughlin Golf Tournament to benefit the Special Education Foundation". Dan and his wife, Libby, make their home in St. Louis with their son, Luke, daughter, Avery, and twins Olivia and Barrett.

RICK HORTON

Rick Horton will continue his work as a broadcaster on Cardinals telecasts for an eighth season. This year he joins the crew on FSN Midwest to provide play-by-play and color commentary on approximately 100 Cardinals games and will continue to provide postgame analysis. Horton provided color commentary on all KSDK broadcasts the past four seasons, as well as working as a baseball play-by-play & analyst and Cardinals Live post-game analyst for Fox Sports Midwest the past four seasons. He provided color commentary for three previous seasons on KPLR telecasts (2004-'06) and was co-anchor on the WB11 post-game show, Extra Innings, in 2003. Horton has filled in on the Cardinals Radio Network and Cardinals television broadcasts since 1997.

A former left-handed pitcher for the Cardinals, Rick spent seven years in the Major Leagues, playing for St. Louis, Los Angeles and the Chicago White Sox. He made his Major League debut with the Cardinals in 1984 and participated in the 1985 and 1987 World Series with the Redbirds and won the Series in 1988 while with the Dodgers. Horton was both a starter and relief pitcher for the club and had one of his best years in 1987 when he went 8-3 in 67 games, pitching 125 innings with 55 strikeouts. In 1991, he spent the season as a pitching coach in the Cleveland Indians minor league system.

After retiring from his Major League playing career, Horton remained in the St. Louis area where he has been active in the Greater St. Louis Area Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as the Director of the St. Louis FCA since 1993. Horton has assisted with Baseball Chapel with the Cardinals and also works with the St. Louis Rams football team in leading chapel and Bible studies.

Horton, 51, and his wife, Ann, reside in St. Louis and have two children; Jen and Drew.

Cardinals Care...Caring for Kids in the Community

Cardinals Care is the team's community foundation dedicated to improving the lives of children. Since its inception in 1997, Cardinals Care has distributed more than $16 million to support St. Louis area organizations. They strive to reach under-served youth through ball field construction and maintenance, cash grant distribution, complimentary ticket programs, baseball and health clinics, school programs, charitable auctions and civic involvement. For more information or to make a donation, please go to www.cardinals.com/community or call 314-345-9418.

Redbird Rookies

Redbird Rookies is the Cardinals Care youth development program that supports kids both on and off the baseball field. This special league provides all the uniforms, gloves, bats, balls and other equipment, as well as extensive off-field guidance in the areas of health, education, mentoring and cultural arts. Currently Redbird Rookies has 20 leagues, serving nearly 4,000 kids in the St. Louis area and parts of rural Missouri and Illinois.

Rookies are invited to attend health fairs (above) where they learn to develop positive habits of eating right and staying active—and they get to hang out with Fredbird (left).

Each Rookie receives free vision, hearing and asthma screenings. In addition, they also get fitted for a complementary bike helmet.

Player Involvement

Throughout the season, Cardinals players and coaches spend quality time on the home field and out in the St. Louis community bringing smiles to the faces of fans in need.

All-Star pitcher Ryan Franklin (above) shows some excelling Redbird Rookies how to pitch like an All-Star on the field at Busch Stadium.

Fundraising Events

The annual Winter Warm-Up and Jerseys Off Our Backs days are major fundraising initiatives for Cardinals Care which combine an opportunity for the fans to interact with players while donating to a great cause. In August 2010, the inaugural Run Home for Kids 6K was introduced as a unique philanthropic experience. Thanks to the generous assistance of our players, coaches, staff, volunteers, sponsors and especially our loyal fans, these events continue to be a tremendous success.

Pitcher Chris Carpenter gives an autographed jersey to a fan who purchased a winning raffle ticket during a Cardinals game.

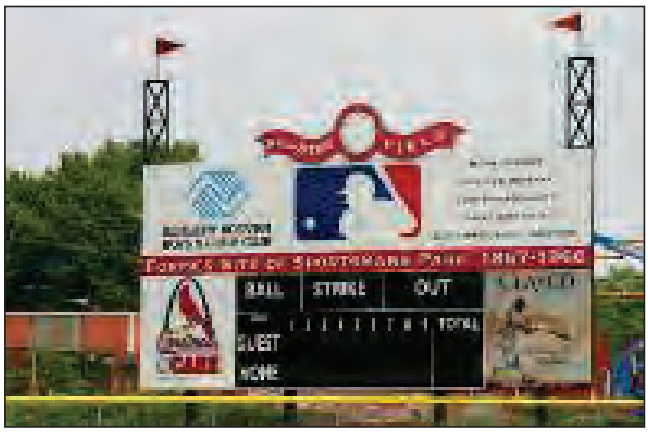
Fan favorite Albert Pujols always draws a lot of attention at the Winter Warm-Up, held downtown every year during Martin Luther King Jr. weekend.

The Run Home for Kids 6K honored Stan 'The Man' Musial, allowed fans to finish on the field at Busch Stadium and raised over $150,000 for kids.

Neighborhood Ball Fields

In an effort to assist in the revitalization of communities throughout our region, Cardinals Care works with local neighbor-hoods to identify and fulfill their needs. Building ball fields and establishing baseball leagues gives youth the opportunity to learn to play ball and instills the importance of giving back.

To date, Cardinals Care has built and revived 19 ball fields throughout the St. Louis metropolitan area. Thousands of children now have a safe place to practice and play.



Fredbird's "Doin' it Right" School Program

"Say NO to Drugs! Stay in School! Participate in Sports and Stay Fit!"

These are the key messages conveyed to more than a quarter of a million grade school students in the St. Louis area. Former players Joe Cunningham, Al Hrabosky, Andy Benes and John Mabry and Mike Claiborne from the Cardinals broadcasting team join Fredbird to host this traveling, no-cost program that entertains students and reminds them of life's important goals.

Cardinals alumni Joe Cunningham educates kids during a local school program (above).

Complimentary Tickets

The Cardinals donate over 45,000 tickets each year to numerous organizations including senior-citizen and community service groups, as well as local schools through their Staight-A, library and safety programs. Hundreds of area kids who participate in the Knothole, Special and Player Ticket Programs get the chance to experience their first Cardinals game.

Cardinals Crew Kids Club

This special fan club just for kids 15 and under includes game tickets, unique promotional items, an end-of-season members-only party at Busch Stadium and much more! Sign-up your favorite fan online at cardinals.com/kidsclub or at any home game.

Kids Crew members get exclusive access to meet players and ask Tony La Russa the tough questions—like his favorite ice cream flavor!
